

antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances.

Pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, the identities of the parties to the venture are: Chevron U.S.A. Inc., Energy Technology Co., Houston, TX; ExxonMobil Upstream Research Co., Houston, TX; Petrobras, Rio de Janeiro, BRAZIL; Tubas De Acero De Mexico S.A., Veracruz, MEXICO; and Vallourec Mannesmann Oil & Gas France, Aulnoye-Aymeries, FRANCE. The general area of Model-CFM's planned activity is to develop an analytical/computational model and associated fundamental experiment that will enable the prediction of corrosion-fatigue performance of material-environment systems of technological interest to the oil and gas industry. To maximize the model's applicability and robustness, it will be (1) Based on scientific principles, (2) informed by fundamental electrochemical experiments to capture the key material-environment interactions, and (3) validated against critical experiments, including long-duration experiments that are currently being performed in parallel, complimentary projects.
