1 A tax filer that filed an income tax return other than an IRS form, such as a foreign or Puerto Rican tax form, must use the information (converted to U.S. dollars) from the lines of the relevant income tax return that corresponds most closely to the income information reported on a U.S. income tax return.

2 If an institution determines that obtaining a transcript from the IRS is not possible, the institution may accept a copy of the 2011 income tax return that includes the signature of the filer of the income tax return or one of the filers of a joint income tax return, or the preparer’s Social Security Number, Employer Identification Number or that has the Preparer Tax Identification Number and has been signed, stamped, typewritten, or signed, stamped, typewritten, or printed with the name and address of the preparer of the income tax return. § 668.57(a)(1)(i) and § 668.57(a)(7)

3 If an individual who is required to submit an IRS Form W–2 is unable to obtain one in a timely manner, the institution may permit that individual to provide a signed statement that includes the amount of income earned from work, the source of that income, and the reason that the IRS Form W–2 is not available in a timely manner.
