SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a) and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A–130, the Office of Inspector General (OIG) completed a review of its Privacy Act system of records notice. As a result of the review, the OIG is proposing to add additional categories of individuals covered by the system; a new purpose; new language to routine use (1); an update on how the information is retrieved; designation of a new system manager and address; and new record source category to Treasury/DO .191 in order to perform necessary functions to prevent loss or damage to any party by reason of false or fictitious financial instruments or documents.

The notices were last published in their entirety on April 20, 2010. The proposed alterations to system of records Treasury/DO .191 entitled “Human Resources and Administrative Records system,” follow:

Treasury/DO .191

SYSTEM NAME: Human Resources and Administrative Records System

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

- Financial instrument fraud

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Description of change: The period “.” at the end of routine use (1) is replaced with a semicolon “;”, and the following language is added at the end thereof: “or to any private entity in order to prevent loss or damage to any party by reason of false or fictitious financial instruments or documents.”

RETRIEVABILITY:

Description of change: After the second sentence, add the following sentence: “Financial instrument fraud database information may be accessed by name and address.”

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

Description of change: Remove the current text and add the following: “Assistant Inspector General for Management, 740 15th St. NW., Suite 510, Washington, DC 20220. For records provided by the general public concerning financial instrument fraud: Counsel to the Inspector General, 740 15th St., NW., Suite 510, Washington, DC 20220.”

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Description of change: The period “.” at the end of the paragraph is replaced with a semicolon “;”, and the following language is added at the end thereof: “persons providing information concerning or alleged to be committing financial instrument fraud.”

Dated: June 18, 2011.

Veronica Marco,

Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for Privacy and Treasury Records.
