The proposed new JOC would provide the special needs, essential services, and requisite office space for the combined occupancy of Reclamation, DWR, and the National Weather Service (NWS) that are lacking at the existing Interim JOC on El Camino. Special needs are defined as two control centers, a flood operations center, backup power supplies, primary and backup communication systems, intense computer infrastructure, and physical and cyber security systems. The new JOC also must meet State essential service criteria, described further below.

DATES: Submit written comments on the Draft EIS/EIR on or before November 7, 2011.

Two public meetings are scheduled with DWR and Reclamation staff. Oral or written comments will be received at these meetings regarding the project’s environmental effects. The meetings will be held on September 22, 2011 from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m. in Sacramento.

ADDRESSES: Submit written comments on the Draft EIS/EIR to Mr. Doug Kleinsmith, Division of Environmental Affairs, Bureau of Reclamation, 2800 Cottage Way, Sacramento, CA 95825.
E-mail electronic comments to dkleinsmith@usbr.gov.

The public meetings will be held at the Sacramento State Aquatics Center, 1901 Hazel Avenue, Gold River, CA
95670.

To request a compact disc of the Draft EIS/EIR, please contact Mr. Doug Kleinsmith as indicated above, or call 916–978–5034. The Draft EIS/EIR may be viewed at Reclamation’s Web site at See Supplementary Information section for locations where copies of the Draft EIS/EIR are available for public review.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr.
Doug Kleinsmith, Natural Resources Specialist, at 916–978–5034, or e-mail at dkleinsmith@usbr.gov; or Mr. John Engstrom, DWR Program Manager, at 916–651–8745, or e-mail at engstrom@water.ca.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The new JOC would accommodate approximately 600 employees and be approximately
