SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The change in the text of the notice entitled “Executive Clemency Case Files/Executive Clemency Tracking System,” as modified to include the following: (1) change in the name of the system to include DOJ contractors, authorized to access and use the system.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:
The system is established and maintained in order to carry out the duties assigned by the President, pursuant to the power granted him under the United States Constitution, Article II, section 2, to the Department of Justice (DOJ) in Executive Order of the President 30–1, dated June 16, 1893; and Executive Order of the President No. 11878 (published at 40 FR 42731), as delegated by the Attorney General to DOJ in 28 CFR 0.35 and 0.36 (Attorney General Order No. 1012–83, published at 48 FR 22290), and as described in 28 CFR 1.1 through 1.11 (Attorney General Order No. 1798–93, published at 58 FR 53658); and 44 U.S.C. 3101.

PURPOSE(S):
Executive Clemency Case files and the records contained within ECRD are maintained by the Attorney General or his designee to facilitate and document the functions of the Attorney General or his designee in receiving, investigating, and evaluating requests for executive clemency; preparing the necessary reports and recommendations from the DOJ to the President in clemency matters; serving as a liaison with clemency applicants and the public on clemency matters; and advising the President on the historical exercise of the clemency power. The system’s use of computerized records facilitates an increased level of efficiency and automation with regard to the maintenance and use of information contained therein.
ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Information contained in this system may be disclosed as follows:

(a) To the President, and members of his staff, in order to assist him in the exercise of his constitutional clemency power.

(b) To any person or entity, whose comments on a particular clemency matter are solicited by OPA in connection with its investigation and review of a case, to the extent deemed by OPA to be necessary in order to enable such persons to respond to the request.

(c) To contractors, grantees, experts, consultants, students, and others performing or working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other assignment for the federal government, when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to this system of records.

(d) To a private contractor or federal agency for the purpose of preparing bound and indexed volumes containing originals and/or photocopies of the official warrant of clemency granted each clemency recipient as a public and official record of Presidential action.

(e) Where a record, either alone or in conjunction with other information, indicates a violation or potential violation of law—criminal, civil, or regulatory in nature—the relevant records may be referred to the appropriate federal, state, local, territorial, tribal, or foreign law enforcement authority or other appropriate entity charged with the responsibility for investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing such law.

(f) To a federal, state, local, or tribal agency, including prosecution, corrections, sentencing, parole, or probation authorities, in order to assist it in the execution of appropriate actions necessary to implement a Presidential clemency decision or in the performance of its official duties.

(g) To federal, state, local, territorial, tribal, foreign, or international licensing agencies or associations which require information concerning the suitability or eligibility of an individual for a license or permit.

(h) In an appropriate proceeding before a court, grand jury, or administrative or adjudicative body, when the DOJ determines that the records are arguably relevant to the proceeding; or in an appropriate proceeding before an administrative or adjudicative body when the adjudicator determines the records to be relevant to the proceeding.

(i) To the news media and the public, including disclosures pursuant to 28 CFR § 50.2, unless it is determined that release of the specific information in the context of a particular case would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(j) To a Member of Congress or staff acting upon the Member’s behalf when the Member or staff requests the information on behalf of, and at the request of, the individual who is the subject of the record.

(k) To the National Archives and Records Administration for purposes of records management inspections and accessions conducted under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

(l) To former employees of the Department for purposes of: Responding to an official inquiry by a federal, state, local, or tribal government entity or professional licensing authority, in accordance with applicable Departmental regulations; or facilitating communications with a former employee that may be necessary for personnel-related or other official purposes where the Department requires information and/or consultation assistance from the former employee regarding a matter within that person’s former area of responsibility.

(m) To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) It is suspected or confirmed that the security or confidentiality of information in the system of records has been compromised; (2) the Department has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed compromise there is a risk of harm to economic or property interests, identity theft or fraud, or harm to the security or integrity of this system or other systems or programs (whether maintained by the Department or another agency or entity) that rely upon the compromised information; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the Department’s efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed compromise and prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

(n) To appropriate officials and employees of a federal agency or entity when the information is relevant to a decision concerning the hiring, appointment, or retention of an employee; the assignment, detail, or deployment of an employee; the issuance, renewal, suspension, or revocation of a security clearance; the execution of a suitability investigation; the letting of a contract; or the issuance of a grant or benefit.

DISCLOSURE TO CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCIES:

None.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

STORAGE:

All records which are part of Executive Clemency Case Files are stored within OPA’s work area in individual file folders in a secure file room or file cabinets with controlled access, and/or other appropriate GSA-approved security containers. All records which are part of ECRD are stored in electronic form in a secure client/server configuration.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Individual case files which are part of Executive Clemency Case Files are retrieved primarily by the name of the person who applied for or was granted or denied executive clemency but also may be retrieved via any piece of uniquely identifying data (i.e., BOP register number, case file number, FBI number, or Social Security number).

SAFEGUARDS:

All records which are part of ECRD are safeguarded in accordance with DOJ rules and policies governing automated systems security and access; entry to the system takes place through individual login of OPA employees and other authorized DOJ personnel; mandatory training is required of all system users; and a thorough audit trail keeps track of user activity within ECRD.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

All paper records are stored within OPA’s work area while clemency is pending, and generally for up to two years after the date of final action. Closed case files are transferred to the Washington National Records Center in Suitland, Maryland one full year after the calendar year in which the case was closed. Except for copies of reports furnished to the President on particular clemency matters, clemency warrants and other documents reflecting the President’s action in clemency cases, case files in any cases in which clemency is granted, case files in other cases designated by the Pardon Attorney as having significant public interest, and notices issued by OPA to the Office of Public Affairs of the DOJ, case files at the Washington National Records Center are destroyed no sooner than 25 years.
write, confer with, or orally advise OPA concerning those applicants; investigatory reports of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Internal Revenue Service, Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency of the Department of Homeland Security and other appropriate government agencies; records of the Federal Bureau of Prisons; reports of the Armed Forces; presentation reports provided by the Bureau of Prisons or the federal Probation Offices; reports of the U.S. Parole Commission; data provided by the Office of White House Counsel; comments and recommendations from current and former federal and state officials; and employees of the Department of Justice.

EXEMPTIONS CLAIMED FOR THE SYSTEM:
The Attorney General has exempted this system from subsections (c)(3); (c)(4), (d)(1), (d)(2), (d)(3), (d)(4), and (e)(5) of the Privacy Act pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2). Rules have been promulgated in accordance with the requirements of 5 U.S.C. 553 (b), (c), and (e) and have been published in the Federal Register.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
Drug Enforcement Administration
Manufacturer of Controlled Substances; Notice of Application

Pursuant to § 1301.33(a), Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), this is notice that on August 3, 2011, Chemic Laboratories, Inc., 480 Neponset Street, Building 7, Canton, Massachusetts 02021, made application by renewal to the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) to manufacture such substance, as a basic class of controlled substance listed in schedule II.
