of exposing an order and thus potentially create a de facto internalization mechanism; and if so, whether, and if so, how, this will adversely impact overall market quality and customer execution quality and whether a de facto internalization mechanism should be of concern to the Commission;

• Whether the proposed fee change, by facilitating internalization of orders on BOX, could or would lead to a shift of order flow from other exchanges and, if so, what is the nature and volume of such order flow and what is the extent to which such order flow currently receives price improvement at the other exchanges or is executed at prices that merely match the NBBO:

• Whether BOX’s other fees, specifically the fee to add liquidity to the BOX book, have an impact on the application or effects of this proposed fee change, and if so, how and what the impact is or will be;

• Whether the filing for SR–BX–2011–046 was sufficient under Section 19(b)(1) of the Act to address issues regarding the effects of the proposed fee change on competition in the PIP;

• Whether the PIP fees, either on a net basis or otherwise, are comparable to any fees or charges on other exchanges, including any PFOF fees and rebates, and, if so, how;

• Whether credits paid on the agency order that is submitted to the PIP auction on behalf of a customer are passed on to the customer or retained by the PIP Initiator and, if passed on, in what form; and

• Whether the Commission should evaluate all fees and all rebates (including PFOF fees and rebates) at all exchanges on a net or aggregate basis to assess their effects on competition or to otherwise assess their consistency with the Exchange Act.

In its filing with the Commission, the self-regulatory organization included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change

44 The Commission has recognized the benefits of exposure to the market, noting in the context of facilitation mechanisms that an “auction [in which an order is exposed to the market] provides some assurance that the customer’s order is executed at the best price any member in that market is willing to offer.” Competitive Developments in the Options Markets, Securities Exchange Act Release No. 49175, 69 FR 6124 (February 9, 2004), at 6130. and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The self-regulatory organization has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statistical Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange currently assesses a per contract transaction charge to members of the Exchange (“Exchange Members”) that add or remove liquidity from the Exchange (“maker/taker fees”) in certain options classes (“the Select Symbols”).1

Pursuant to Commission approval, both Priority Customer 2 and Professional Customer 5 orders that are not executable on the Exchange are exposed or “flashed” to Exchange Members before they are sent through the intermarket linkage system to another exchange for execution because that exchange is displaying a better price.6 Since the inception of such orders as “taking” liquidity. And as takers of liquidity, the Exchange proposes to charge these orders the Exchange’s standard taker fee for Select Symbols, which for Priority Customer orders and Professional Customer orders is currently $0.12 per contract and $0.28 per contract, respectively.

Additionally, the Exchange currently provides a $0.10 per contract fee credit for executions resulting from responses to Customer (Professional) 8 orders that are “flashed” by the Exchange to its Members. The Exchange now proposes to extend the $0.10 per contract fee credit for executions resulting from responses to Priority Customer orders in the Select Symbols that are “flashed” by the Exchange to its Members. For Priority Customer orders that are preferenced to an ISE Market Maker that are subsequently executed in the Exchange’s “flash” mechanism, the Exchange proposes to adopt a fee credit of $0.12 per contract for the preferred Market Maker. At least one other exchange currently provides a rebate to a particular segment of its membership for responding to that exchange’s “flash” auction. For example, the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Inc. (“CBOE”) currently provides a $0.15 per contract rebate but does so only to its market makers and only if those market makers satisfy a quoting requirement. 9

The Exchange believes that its proposal to amend its Schedule of Fees is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act, in that it is designed to make the Exchange’s fee structure for “flashed” orders more consistent with its overall maker/taker fee structure, thereby removing impediments to and perfecting the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system.

The Exchange believes that its proposal to adopt $0.12 per contract maker/taker rebate fee for flashed Priority Customer orders and a $0.28 per contract maker/taker fee for flashed Professional Customer orders in the Select Symbols is an equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among Exchange Members and other persons using its facilities. The impact of the proposal upon the net fees paid by a particular Exchange Member will depend on a number of variables, most important of which will be its propensity to add or remove liquidity in options overlying the Select Symbols.

The Exchange believes that the proposed fees are competitive with fees charged by other exchanges and therefore continue to be reasonable and equitably allocated to those members that opt to direct orders to the Exchange rather than to a competing exchange. The Exchange believes that treating Priority Customer orders and Professional Customer orders in the Select Symbols that are “flashed” as takers of liquidity (as opposed to makers of liquidity which is how these orders were previously treated), as well as providing a rebate to responses to Priority Customer orders (in addition to the responses to Professional Customer orders, which is in place today) furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(5) of the Act, in that it is designed to make the Exchange’s fee structure for “flashed” orders more consistent with its overall maker/taker fee structure, thereby removing impediments to and perfecting the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system.

The Exchange believes that its proposal to adopt $0.12 per contract maker/taker rebate fee for flashed Priority Customer orders and a $0.28 per contract maker/taker fee for flashed Professional Customer orders in the Select Symbols is an equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among Exchange Members and other persons using its facilities because such fees are within the range of fees assessed by the Exchange and other exchanges employing maker/taker pricing schemes. The Exchange believes that its proposal to adopt $0.10 per contract rebate for responses to flashed Priority Customer orders in the Select Symbols is an equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among Exchange Members and other persons using its facilities because such rebate amount is the same as the rebate amount that is currently in place for responses to flashed Professional Customer orders in the Select Symbols. The Exchange also believes that its proposal is reasonable because it will allow the Exchange to remain competitive with other exchanges that employ a similar pricing scheme.

The Exchange further believes that adopting a fee credit for executions resulting from responses to Priority Customer orders is reasonable and equitable because doing so will incentivize Exchange Members to execute Priority Customer orders on the Exchange by trading against these orders at the National Best Bid or Offer (NBBO), while continuing to charge a competitively low fee for taking liquidity. Further, the Exchange believes that the proposed fee credit is not unfairly discriminatory because the credit would be applied uniformly to all responses to Priority Customer orders executed in the Exchange’s “flash” mechanism, except for preferred Market Makers which receive a slightly higher credit because of the preferred Market Makers’ role in intentionally directing order flow to the Exchange.

Moreover, the Exchange believes that the proposed fees are fair, equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because the proposed fees are consistent with price differentiation that exists today at other option exchanges having maker/taker pricing. Additionally, the Exchange believes it remains an attractive venue for market participants to trade Priority Customer and Professional Customer orders despite its proposed fee change as its fees remain competitive with those charged by other exchanges for similar pricing strategies. The Exchange operates in a highly competitive market in which Exchange Members can readily, and do, direct order flow to competing exchanges if they deem fee levels at a particular exchange to be excessive. The Exchange believes that the proposed fees and rebates it assesses must be competitive with fees and rebates assessed on other options exchanges. The Exchange believes that this competitive marketplace impacts the fees present on the Exchange today and influences the proposals set forth above.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Burden on Competition

The proposed rule change does not impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Receiving From Members, Participants or Others

The Exchange has not solicited, and does not intend to solicit, comments on this proposed rule change. The Exchange has not received any unsolicited written comments from members or other interested parties.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act. At any time within 60 days of the filing of such proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, CME included statements concerning the purpose and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. CME has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

CME offers clearing services for certain credit default swap index products. Currently, CME offers clearing for Markit CDX North American Investment Grade Index Series 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16, 5 year maturities. The proposed rule changes that are the subject of this filing are intended to expand CME’s Markit Investment Grade Index product offering by incorporating additional series and maturities for the existing products. More specifically, the proposed rule changes would:

- Add the Markit CDX North American Investment Grade Index Series 10, with 5, 7, and 10 year maturities.
- Add the Markit CDX North American Investment Grade Index Series 11, with 3, 5, 7, and 10 year maturities;
- Expand the maturities of the Markit CDX North American Investment Grade Index Series 12–16 to include the 3, 7 and 10 year maturities.
- Add the Markit CDX North American Investment Grade Index Series 17, with 3, 5, 7, and 10 year maturities.

The proposed rule changes that are the subject of this filing will become immediately effective. CME notes that it has also certified the proposed rule changes that are the subject of this filing to its primary regulator, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC"). The text of the CME proposed rule amendments is in Section I of this notice, with additions italicized and deletions in brackets.

The proposed CME rule amendments merely incorporate additional series and maturities to CME’s existing offering of broad-based Markit Investment Grade Index credit default swaps. As such, the proposed amendments simply effect changes to an existing service of a registered clearing agency that (1) do not adversely affect the safeguarding of securities or funds in the custody or control of the clearing agency or for which it is responsible and (2) do not significantly affect the respective rights or obligations of the clearing agency or persons using its clearing agency services. Therefore, the proposed rule change is therefore properly filed under Section 19(b)(3)(A) and Rule 19b–4(f)(4)(i) thereunder.
