SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Proposed Collection; Comment Request

Upon Written Request, Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Investor Education and Advocacy, Washington, DC 20549-0213.

Extension:

Rule 17a-5(c); SEC File No. 270-199; OMB Control No. 3235-0199.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") is soliciting comments on the existing collection of information provided for in Rule 17a-5(c) (17 CFR 240.17a-5(c)) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.). The Commission plans to submit this existing collection of information to the Office of Management and Budget for extension and approval.

Rule 17a-5(c) generally requires broker-dealers who carry customer accounts to provide statements of the broker-dealer's financial condition to their customers. Paragraph (5) of Rule 17a-5(c) provides a conditional exemption from this requirement. A broker-dealer that elects to take advantage of the exemption must publish its statements on its Web site in a prescribed manner, and must maintain a toll-free number that customers can call to request a copy of the statements.

The purpose of the Rule is to ensure that customers of broker-dealers are provided with information concerning the financial condition of the firm that may be holding the customers' cash and securities. The Commission, when adopting the Rule in 1972, stated that the goal was to "directly" send a customer essential information so that the customer could "judge whether his broker or dealer is financially sound." The Commission adopted the Rule in response to the failure of several broker-dealers holding customer funds and securities in the period between 1968 and 1971.

The Commission estimates that approximately 244 broker-dealer respondents carrying approximately 101 million public customer accounts incur an average burden of 128,000 hours per year to comply with the Rule.

Written comments are invited on: (a) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the Commission's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Consideration will be given to comments and suggestions submitted in writing within 60 days of this publication.

The Commission may not conduct or sponsor a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number. No person shall be subject to any penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information subject to the PRA that does not display a valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number.

Please direct your written comments to: Thomas Bayer, Director/Chief Information Officer, Securities and Exchange Commission, c/o Remi Pavlik-

Simon, 6432 General Green Way, Alexandria, Virginia 22312 or send an e-mail to: PRA_Mailbox@sec.gov.

Dated: September 20, 2011.

Elizabeth M. Murphy,
Secretary.

Applicants’ Representations

1. The Trust is organized as a Massachusetts business trust and is registered under the Act as an open-end management investment company. The Trust is currently comprised of three separate series, Curian/PIMCO Total Return Fund, Curian/PIMCO Income Fund, and Curian/WMC International Equity Fund (the “Initial Funds”), each with its own distinct investment objectives, policies and restrictions.¹ Each Initial Fund currently employs an unaffiliated subadviser (each, a “Subadviser”).

2. The Adviser is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (“Advisers Act”). The Adviser serves as investment adviser to each Initial Fund under an investment advisory agreement (“Advisory Agreement”) with the Trust. An Adviser will also serve as the investment adviser to any future Funds. Each Initial Fund’s Advisory Agreement was approved by the Trust’s board of trustees (“Board”), including a majority of trustees who are not “interested persons,” as defined in section 2(a)(19) of the Act, of the Trust, the Adviser, or the Subadvisers (“Independent Trustees”) and by that Fund’s shareholders.

3. Under the terms of the Advisory Agreement, and subject to the authority of the Board, the Adviser is responsible for the overall management of the Initial

¹ Applicants also request relief with respect to future series of the Trust and any other existing or future registered open-end management investment company or series thereof that: (a) is advised by the Adviser or any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the Adviser or its successors (included in the term “Adviser”); (b) uses the manager of managers structure described in the application (“Manager of Managers Structure”); and (c) complies with the terms and conditions of the application (together with the Initial Funds, the “Funds”). The only existing registered open-end management investment company that currently intends to rely on the requested order is named as an applicant. If the name of any Fund contains the name of a Subadviser (as defined below), the name of the Adviser will precede the name of the Subadviser. For purposes of the requested order, “successor” is limited to any entity or entities that result from a reorganization into another jurisdiction or a change in the type of business organization.

Funds’ business affairs and selecting the Initial Funds’ investments in accordance with each Fund’s investment objectives, policies and restrictions. For the investment advisory services that it provides to the Initial Funds, the Adviser receives the fee specified in the Advisory Agreement from each Fund. Under the Advisory Agreement, the Adviser may retain one or more subadvisers for the purpose of managing the investment of the assets of the Funds. Pursuant to this authority, the Adviser has entered into investment subadvisory agreements (“Subadvisory Agreements”) with two Subadvisers to provide investment advisory services to the Initial Funds. Each Subadviser is and each future Subadviser will be registered as an investment adviser under the Advisers Act. The Adviser will obtain for the Funds the services of one or more Subadvisers, evaluate and allocate assets to, and oversee the Subadvisers, and make recommendations about their hiring, termination and replacement to the Board, at all times subject to the authority of the Board. The Subadvisers are expected to be compensated directly by each Fund.²

4. Applicants request an order to permit the Adviser, subject to Board approval, to enter into and materially amend Subadvisory Agreements without obtaining shareholder approval. The requested relief will not extend to any subadviser that is an affiliated person, as defined in section 2(a)(3) of the Act, of the Trust, a Fund or the Adviser (other than by reason of serving as a subadviser to one or more of the Funds) (“Affiliated Subadviser”).
