Synopsis: As required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3507), the FCC is notifying the public that it received OMB approval for the information collection requirements described above. The OMB Control Numbers are 3060–0370, 3060–0742, 3060–0298 and 3060–1096. The total annual reporting burden for respondents for these collections of information, including the time for gathering and maintaining the collection of information, has been most recently approved to be:

- For 3060–0370: 859 responses, for a total of 859 hours, and no annual costs.
- For 3060–0742: 10,001,890 responses, for a total of 672,516 hours and $13,423,321 in annual costs.
- For 3060–0298: 1,160 responses, for a total annual burden of 58,000 hours, and $945,400 in annual costs.
- For 3060–1096: 1,896 responses, for a total of 15,800 hours, and no annual costs.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor a collection of information unless it displays a current valid OMB Control Number. No person shall be subject to any penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act, which does not display a current, valid OMB Control Number. The preceding notice is required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104–13, October 1, 1995, and 44 U.S.C. 3507.

Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement; Defense Cargo Riding Gang Member (DFARS Case 2007–D002)

AGENCY: Defense Acquisition Regulations System, Department of Defense (DoD).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: DoD is adopting as final, with changes, an interim rule amending the Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS) to implement section 3504 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2007, which amended title 10, United States Code, section 2309, to add a new subsection (d) requiring the Secretary of the Military Departments and the Secretary of the Air Force to publish a list of ordained ministry personnel of each faith or religious denomination who are certified or licensed to perform marriage ceremonies within their respective faith or religious denomination. The interim rule amplified the new statutory requirement and provided that the lists be published in the Federal Register prior to the amendment going into effect. The interim rule also clarified that the Defense Department was not adopting any other changes to the military marriage laws, including those pertaining to military same-sex couples. This final rule amends the DFARS to implement the statutory requirement, to ensure that the United States Code is consistent with itself, and to reflect the changes to the military marriage laws that were approved by OMB.

The final rule also updates an existing DFARS section to reflect changes in the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR). The updated section is called the Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS) to the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR).

Finally, the final rule amends the DFARS to implement section 1104 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2011, which amended title 10, United States Code, section 2309, to remove a statutory requirement that the Secretary of the Military Departments and the Secretary of the Air Force list the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of ordained ministry personnel of each faith or religious denomination who are certified or licensed to perform marriage ceremonies within their respective faith or religious denomination. The final rule also updates an existing DFARS section to reflect changes in the FAR.
