SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Financial Protection Act (“Act”), Public Law 111–203, Title X, established the CFPB to administer and enforce federal consumer financial protection law. The CFPB will maintain the records covered by this notice.

The system of records described in this notice, CFPB.005—Consumer Response System, will be used to collect, respond to, and refer consumer inquiries and complaints concerning consumer financial products and services received after July 21, 2011. A description of the system of records follows this Notice.

The report of a modified system of records has been submitted to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and the Office of Management and Budget, pursuant to Appendix I to OMB Circular A–130, “Federal Agency Responsibilities for Maintaining Records About Individuals,” dated November 30, 2000, and the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a(r).

The system of records entitled, “CFPB.005—Consumer Response System” is published in its entirety below.

The CFPB implementation team under Treasury previously published a system of records notice (“SORN”) with proposed routine uses for the Consumer Inquiry and Complaint System (“CIC”) in the Federal Register, 76 FR 1507, January 10, 2011. Comments were invited from the public on the SORN. This notice takes into account these comments and establishes the modified system of records.

The CFPB received several comments regarding the “routine uses” set forth in that SORN. The CFPB has carefully reviewed these comments and has revised the routine uses contained in this SORN, as appropriate. In some cases the routine uses have been eliminated or combined. In the previous SORN, there were 16 routine uses, while this SORN only has 12. In addition, the CFPB has clarified that the system may include complaints about individuals made directly to the CFPB and not merely complaints about individuals made to other federal or state agencies and then shared with the CFPB.

Some comments discussed the need for further agency rulemaking, and development of other procedures and practices. The CFPB has published interim final regulations on information disclosure processes and procedures. Disclosures of information contained in a system of records must be in compliance with these interim final regulations. As the CFPB continues to develop its policies, procedures, and regulations as required by the Act, it will address other issues raised in the comments, including the procedures surrounding the handling of consumer complaints as required by Section 1034 of the Act.

Several comments characterized the routine uses as too broad and inclusive. Each of the routine uses listed here reflect the Bureau’s careful and considered determination that the sharing of consumer response information in these situations is necessary and proper to carry out the agency’s mission. Many of the routine uses are common to other agencies. For example, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation’s Consumer Complaint and Inquiry Records SORN, published at 72 FR 61136, Oct. 29, 2007, and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency’s

Consumer Complaint and Inquiry Information System, published at 73 FR 41412, July 18, 2008, contain routine uses similar to the routine uses set forth in this SORN. Indeed several routine uses, such as disclosure of information when there has been a security breach that could present a risk of harm to the security or integrity of the system or individuals, are common to all government agency SORNs.

One comment objected to the disclosure of information to third parties to resolve complaints. This routine use remains as the CFPB believes it is necessary to resolve complaints and it is common to other financial regulators’ consumer complaint SORNs.

One routine use established in the previous CFPB SORN addressing consumer complaint data has been removed based on comments received. Disclosure of consumer complaints to other consumers who filed similar complaints was formerly authorized for the purpose of updating complainants on the status of an investigation. Following the comments received, the CFPB determined it was not necessary to disclose this information to achieve the goals of updating all parties on the status ongoing investigations.

One comment also objected to the use of the word “victim” as overly broad. Any references to “victim” have been removed.

The previous consumer complaint SORN contained separate routine uses for disclosure of records in civil and criminal proceedings before a court, magistrate or administrative tribunal. These routine uses have been combined.

Dated: October 31, 2011.

Claire Stapleton,
Chief Privacy Officer.

Certain Pasta From Turkey: Notice of Final Results of the 14th Antidumping Duty Administrative Review

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: On April 29, 2011, the Department of Commerce (the Department) published the preliminary results of the 14th administrative review for the antidumping duty order on certain pasta from Turkey (pasta).¹ The review covers one exporter: Marsan Gida Sanayi ve Ticaret A.S. (Marsan). The period of review (POR) is July 1, 2009, through June 30, 2010.

As a result of our analysis of the comments received, the final results remain the same as the Preliminary Results. The Department continues to find that Marsan had no shipments to the United States during the POR for which it was the first party with knowledge of U.S. destination. Because "as entered" liquidation instructions do not alleviate the concerns which the May 6, 2003, "automatic assessment" clarification was intended to address,² we continue to find it appropriate in this case to instruct Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to liquidate any existing entries of merchandise produced by Birlik and exported by Marsan at the rate applicable to Birlik, i.e., the all-others rate from the investigation of 51.49 percent. See Preliminary Results, 76 FR at 23977-78.

DATES: Effective Date: November 4, 2011.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Stephanie Moore, AD/CVD Operations, Office 3, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-3692.

from Turkey, and we invited parties to comment on the Preliminary Results. On May 27, 2011, Marsan submitted a case brief, and on June 9, 2011, petitioners³ submitted a rebuttal brief.⁴ On June 27, 2011, the Department held a public hearing.

Scope of the Review

Imports covered by this review are shipments of certain non-egg dry pasta in packages of five pounds (2.27 kilograms) or less, whether or not enriched or fortified or containing milk or other optional ingredients such as chopped vegetables, vegetable purees, milk, gluten, diastases, vitamins, coloring and flavorings, and up to two percent egg white. The pasta covered by this scope is typically sold in the retail market, in fiberboard or cardboard cartons, or polyethylene or polypropylene bags of varying dimensions. Excluded from the scope of this review are refrigerated, frozen, or canned pastas, as well as all forms of egg pasta, with the exception of non-egg dry pasta containing up to two percent egg white.

The merchandise subject to review is currently classifiable under item 1902.19.20 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS subheading is provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the merchandise subject to the order is dispositive.

Analysis of Comments Received

All issues raised in the case and rebuttal briefs by parties to this administrative review are addressed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum which is hereby adopted by this notice. A list of the issues raised is attached to this notice as Appendix I. The Issues and Decision Memorandum is a public document and is on file electronically via Import Administration's Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System (IA ACCESS). Access to IA ACCESS is also available in the Central Records Unit (CRU), room 7046 of the main Department of Commerce building. In addition, a complete version of the Issues and Decision Memorandum can be accessed directly on the Internet at <http://www.trade.gov/ia/>. ⁴ On June 3, 2011, petitioners requested an extension until June 9, 2011, to file its rebuttal brief. On June 6, 2011, the Department granted the extension.
