SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) proposes to update and reissue a Department-wide system of records notice titled, “DHS/ALL—017 General Legal Records System of Records.” This system will assist attorneys in providing legal advice to DHS on a wide variety of legal issues. As a result of the biennial review of this system, updates have been made to the routine uses within this notice and other administrative non-substantive changes. The subsections of the exemptions have also been updated for accuracy and a new Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM) has been published. Until a new Final Rule is published, the Final Rule published on October 1, 2009 remains active and in place. Additions were made to the routine uses to include sharing with federal, state, local, tribal, foreign, or international agencies, regarding individuals who pose or are suspected of posing a risk to transportation or national security; to former employees to respond to government agencies or licensing authorities or for personnel matters; to the Department of Justice, United States Attorney’s Office, or other federal agencies to collect debt; to the Department of Transportation for certain purposes; and to third-parties regarding their employees, applicants, contractors, and individuals to whom the third-party issues credentials or clearance to secured areas.

The purpose of this system is to assist DHS attorneys in providing legal advice to DHS personnel on a wide variety of legal issues; to collect the information of any individual who is, or will be, in litigation with the Department, as well as the attorneys representing the plaintiff(s) and defendant(s) response to claims by employees, former employees, and other individuals; to assist in the settlement of claims against the government; to represent DHS during litigation, and to maintain internal statistics. DHS is authorized to implement this program primarily through 5 U.S.C. 301; The Federal Records Act, 44 U.S.C. 3101; The Homeland Security Act of 2002, Public Law 107–296; The Aviation and Transportation Security Act, Public Law 107–71. This system has an affect on individual privacy that is balanced by the need to collect and maintain information related to legal advice issued. Routine uses contained in this notice include sharing with the Department of Justice (DOJ) for legal advice and representation; to a congressional office at the request of an individual; to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) for records management; to contractors in support of their contract assignment to DHS; to agencies, organizations or individuals for the purpose of audit; to agencies, entities, or persons during a security or information compromise or breach; to an agency, organization, or individual when there could potentially be a risk of harm to an individual; to an appropriate federal, state, tribal, local, international, or foreign law enforcement agency or other appropriate authority charged with investigating or prosecuting a violation or enforcing or implementing a law, rule, regulation, or order; to a court, magistrate, or administrative tribunal for hearings; to third parties during the course of an investigation; to a federal, state, local, tribal, foreign, or international agency, where such agency has requested information relevant or necessary for the hiring or retention of an individual; to international and foreign governmental entities in accordance with law and formal or informal international agreement; to State Bar Grievance Committees and local Attorney General offices for disbarment or disciplinary proceedings; to unions recognized as exclusive bargaining representatives; To a former employee of DHS, in accordance with applicable regulations; to the DOJ, United States Attorney’s Office, or other federal agencies for further collection action on any delinquent debt; and to the news media in the interest of the public. This system will remain in constant review to ensure that if information is collected from the public that the practice is done so in compliance with Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA).

This system will continue to be included in DHS’s inventory of record systems.

II. Privacy Act

The Privacy Act embodies fair information principles in a statutory framework governing the means by which the United States Government collects, maintains, uses, and disseminates individuals’ records. The Privacy Act applies to information that is maintained in a “system of records.” A “system of records” is a group of any records under the control of an agency for which information is retrieved by the name of an individual or by some identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual. In the Privacy Act, an individual is defined to encompass United States citizens and legal permanent residents. As a matter of policy, DHS extends administrative Privacy Act protections to all individuals where systems of records maintain information on U.S. citizens, lawful permanent residents, and visitors. Individuals may request access to their own records that are maintained in a system of records in the possession or under the control of DHS by complying with DHS Privacy Act regulations, 6 CFR part 5.

The Privacy Act requires that each agency publish in the Federal Register a description denoting the type and character of each system of records in order to make agency recordkeeping practices transparent, to notify individuals about the use of their records, and to assist the individual to more easily find files within the agency. Below is a description of the General Legal Records System of Records.
