filers to request a temporary limited hardship exemption from mandatory E-Filing. A small business may request, and may be granted an emergency extension by FinCEN based upon certain very limited hardship exemptions.

h. Individual filers: Effective August 2011, FinCEN expanded the option to electronically file the Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR) to individuals. Individuals worldwide can sign up to file their individual FBARs by accessing the FinCEN E-Filing Web site.

i. Other Filing Issues: One commenter noted a potential issue with duplicate filings that are currently required by several States. FinCEN will continue to address the duplicate filing issue with the States involved. FinCEN noted this issue in its SAR Confidentiality notice filing.

j. Report of Cash Payments Over $10,000 Received in a Trade or Business (Form 8300). Although FinCEN is making electronic filing of the Report of Cash Payments Over $10,000 Received in a Trade or Business, Form 8300 available to the filing public and will encourage the use of electronic filing as a fast and secure means for filers to meet their obligations, FinCEN is not mandating the E-Filing of this report at this time to remain consistent with statutory restrictions under 26 U.S.C. 6011(e)(2) that may pertain to this report, which is required under both FinCEN and IRS regulations.

Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA)

Type of Review: Review of the final notice to mandate the electronic filing of BSA reports. The burden associated with this notice is reflected below.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profit and non-profit institutions.

Frequency: As required.

Estimated Burden: Effective with the FinCEN IT Modernization, there will be seven BSA reports. The burden for electronic filing and recordkeeping of each BSA report is reflected in the OMB approved burden for each of these reports. The non-reporting recordkeeping burden is reflected separately.

Estimated Number of Respondents for all reports = 74,900.

Estimated Total Annual Responses for all reports = 16,172,770.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours = 20,874,761.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless the collection of information displays a valid OMB control number. Records required to be retained pursuant to the BSA must be retained for five years.

Background

On September 23, 2001, the President issued Executive Order 13224 (the “Order”) pursuant to the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. 1701–1706, and the United Nations Participation Act of 1945, 22 U.S.C. 287c. In the Order, the President declared a national emergency to address grave acts of terrorism and threats of terrorism committed by foreign terrorists, including the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks in New York, Pennsylvania, and at the Pentagon. The Order imposes economic sanctions on persons who have committed, pose a significant risk of committing, or support acts of terrorism. The President identified in the Annex to the Order, as amended by Executive Order 13268 of July 2, 2002, 13 individuals and 16 entities as subject to the economic sanctions. The Order was further amended by Executive Order 13284 of January 23, 2003, to reflect the creation of the Department of Homeland Security.

Section 1 of the Order blocks, with certain exceptions, all property and interests in property that are in or hereafter come within the United States or the possession or control of United States persons, of: (1) Foreign persons listed in the Annex to the Order; (2) foreign persons determined by the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Attorney General, to have committed, or to pose a significant risk of committing, acts of terrorism that threaten the security of U.S. nationals or the national security, foreign policy, or economy of the United States; (3) persons determined by the Director of OFAC, in consultation with the Departments of State, Homeland Security and Justice, to be owned or controlled by, or to act for or on behalf of those persons listed in the Annex to the Order or those persons determined to be subject to subsection 1(b), 1(c), or 1(d)(i) of the Order; and (4) except as provided in section 5 of the Order and after such consultation, if any, with foreign authorities as the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary... of the Treasury, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security and the Attorney General, deems appropriate in the exercise of his discretion, persons determined by the Director of OFAC, in consultation with the Departments of State, Homeland Security and Justice, to assist in, sponsor, or provide financial, material, or technological support for, or financial or other services to or in support of, such acts of terrorism or those persons listed in the Annex to the Order or determined to be subject to the Order or to be otherwise associated with those persons listed in the Annex to the Order or those persons determined to be subject to subsection 1(b), 1(c), or 1(d)(i) of the Order.

On February 23, 2012 the Director of OFAC, in consultation with the Departments of State, Homeland Security, Justice and other relevant agencies, designated, pursuant to one or more of the criteria set forth in subsections 1(b), 1(c) or 1(d) of the Order, 3 individuals whose property and interests in property are blocked pursuant to Executive Order 13224.
