SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

17 CFR Part 200

[Release No. 34-66502]

Rules of Organization; Conduct and Ethics; and Information and Requests

AGENCY: Securities and Exchange Commission.

ACTION: Final rule; technical amendment.

SUMMARY: The Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC” or “Commission”) is making technical amendments to the rule under which former members and employees of the Commission are required to file with the Commission a statement concerning their practice outside the government. The amendments change the office responsible for processing these statements and provide a means of filing a statement electronically.

DATES: Effective: March 7, 2012.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Shira Pavis Minton, Ethics Counsel, 202-551-7938, Office of the Ethics Counsel, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street NE., Washington, DC 20549-9150.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

SEC Conduct Rule 8(b)¹ requires that any former member or employee of the Commission who, within 2 years after ceasing to be such, is employed or retained as the representative of any person outside the government in any matter in which it is contemplated that he or she will appear before the Commission, or communicate with the Commission or its employees, shall, within ten days of such retainer or employment, or of the time when appearance before, or communication with the Commission or its employees is first contemplated, file with the Secretary of the Commission a statement which includes: (i) A description of the contemplated representation; (ii) An affirmative representation that the former employee while on the Commission’s staff had neither personal and substantial responsibility nor official responsibility for the matter which is the subject of the representation; and (iii) The name of the Commission Division or Office in which the person had been employed.

In order to increase efficiency, the Commission is adopting a technical amendment to require that SEC conduct rule 8(b) submissions be sent to the Office of the Ethics Counsel rather than the Secretary of the Commission and provide a means of filing a statement electronically.²

II. Administrative Law Matters

Under the Administrative Procedure Act, notice of proposed rulemaking is not required when an agency, for good cause, finds that notice and public comment are impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest. The amendments are technical changes, adopted solely to update references to a statutory provision that remains unchanged except for its designation. For this reason, the Commission finds that it is unnecessary to publish notice of these amendments. Similarly, the amendments do not require analysis under the Regulatory Flexibility Act or analysis of major rule status under the Small Business Regulatory Fairness Act. For purposes of Regulatory Flexibility Act analysis, the term “rule” means any rule for which the agency publishes a general notice of proposed rulemaking, and for purposes of Congressional review of agency rulemaking, the term “rule” does not include any rule of agency organization, procedure or practice that does not substantially affect the rights or obligations of non-agency parties.³ Because these rules relate solely to the agency’s organization, procedure, or practice and do not substantially affect the rights or obligations of non-agency parties, they are not subject to the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act.⁴ Finally, these amendments do not contain any new collection of information requirements as defined by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, as amended.⁵

III. Cost-Benefit Analysis

The Commission is sensitive to the costs and benefits imposed by its rules. The amendments adopted today are technical in nature and will produce the benefit of facilitating the efficient operation of the Commission. The Commission also believes that these rules will not impose any costs on non-agency parties, or that if there are any such costs, they are negligible.

IV. Consideration of Burden on Competition

Section 23(a)(2)⁶ of the Exchange Act requires the Commission, in adopting rules under the Exchange Act, to consider the competitive effects of such rules. Because this amendment merely makes technical changes to an existing requirement, no competitive advantages or disadvantages would be created.

V. Statutory Authority and Text of Amendments

We are adopting these technical amendments under the authority set forth in Section 23(a)⁷ of the Exchange Act.

[EPA–R04–OAR–2010–1036; FRL–9643–2]

Approval and Promulgation of Implementation Plans and Designations of Areas for Air Quality Planning Purposes; Georgia; Atlanta; Determination of Attainment by Applicable Attainment Date for the 1997 8-Hour Ozone Standards

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: EPA is determining that the Atlanta, Georgia, 1997 8-hour ozone nonattainment Area (hereafter referred to as “the Atlanta Area” or “the Area”) has attained the 1997 8-hour ozone national ambient air quality standards (NAAQS) by its applicable attainment date of June 15, 2011. The determination of attainment was made by EPA on June 23, 2011, and was based on quality-assured and certified monitoring data for the 2008–2010 monitoring period. The Atlanta Area is comprised of Barrow, Bartow, Carroll, Cherokee, Clayton, Cobb, Coweta, Dekalb, Douglas, Fayette, Forsyth, Fulton, Gwinnett, Hall, Henry, Newton, Paulding, Rockdale, Spalding and Walton Counties in Georgia. In this action EPA is determining that the above-identified Area attained the 1997 8-hour ozone NAAQS by its applicable attainment date. EPA is finalizing this action because it is consistent with the Clean Air Act (CAA) and its implementing regulations. Additionally, in this action EPA is clarifying an inadvertent citation error in the proposed approval for this action.

DATES: This final rule is effective on April 6, 2012.

ADDRESSES: EPA has established a docket for this action under Docket ID Number EPA–R04–OAR–2010–1036. All documents in the docket are listed in the www.regulations.gov Web site. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. What action is EPA taking?

Based on EPA’s review of the quality-assured and certified monitoring data for 2008–2010, and in accordance with section 181(b)(2) of the CAA and EPA’s regulations, EPA is determining that the Atlanta Area attained the 1997 8-hour ozone NAAQS by the applicable attainment date of June 15, 2011.¹

On June 23, 2011, EPA published a determination of attainment for the Atlanta Area, which served to suspend the requirements for the State to submit an attainment demonstration and associated reasonably available control measures (RACM), reasonable further progress (RFP) plan, contingency measures, and other planning State Implementation Plan (SIP) revisions related to attainment of the 1997 8-hour ozone NAAQS so long as the Area continues to attain the 1997 8-hour ozone NAAQS. See 76 FR 36873. This final rulemaking also includes useful background information on the 8-hour ozone NAAQS relevant to the Atlanta Area. Today’s action finalizes EPA’s determination that the Atlanta Area attained the 1997 8-hour ozone NAAQS

¹ Effective June 15, 2004, EPA designated the Atlanta Area as a marginal area under the 1997 8-hour ozone NAAQS. Subsequently, EPA took action to reclassify the Area to moderate for the 1997 8-hour ozone NAAQS. Moderate areas for the 1997 8-hour ozone NAAQS had an applicable attainment date of June 15, 2010, unless the area qualified for an extension. On November 30, 2010, EPA took final action to extend the applicable attainment date for the Atlanta Area to June 15, 2011. See 75 FR 73969 for more information.
