INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 337–TA–801]

Certain Products Containing Interactive Program Guide and Parental Controls Technology; Modification of Initial Determination and Termination of Investigation

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined on review to modify the presiding administrative law judge’s (“ALJ”) initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 5) granting motion to terminate the investigation in its entirety based upon a settlement agreement. On October 4, 2011, the ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 5) granting the motion for termination of the investigation in its entirety. In the subject ID, the ALJ found that the parties satisfied all the requirements under 19 CFR 210.21(b)(1), including a statement that the parties have no other agreements concerning the subject matter of this investigation. The ALJ noted that the settlement agreement contemplated execution of a more detailed agreement by October 30, 2011, but he found that the possibility of further agreements between the parties did not affect his initial determination to grant the joint motion for termination. No petitions for review were filed.

The Commission determined to review the ID on its own motion and required Rovi and Sharp to submit their detailed final agreement, so that the Commission could fully assess compliance with the requirements of 19 CFR 210.21(b)(1) and 210.50(b)(2). The parties filed their final agreement with the Commission on January 13, 2012. Upon consideration of that document, the Commission has determined that the parties’ joint motion for termination complies with §§ 210.21(b)(1) and 210.50(b)(2). Accordingly, the Commission has modified the ALJ’s ID to include a consideration of the final agreement.

Issued: March 5, 2012.

By order of the Commission.

James R. Holbein,
Secretary to the Commission.
