In the request for reconsideration, the petitioners supplied new information regarding the subject firm's operations overseas and possible import competition.

The Department of Labor has carefully reviewed the request for reconsideration and the existing record, and has determined that the Department will conduct further investigation to determine if the workers meet the eligibility requirements to apply for TAA.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the U.S. Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

RR Donnelley, Inc., Including On-Site Leased Workers From Manpower and Kelly Services, Bloomsburg, PA; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application dated February 25, 2012, the petitioners requested administrative reconsideration of the negative determination regarding workers' eligibility to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) applicable to workers and former workers of RR Donnelley, Inc., including on-site leased workers from Manpower and Kelly Services, Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania (subject firm). The Department's Notice of determination was issued on February 3, 2012 and published in the Federal Register on February 21, 2012 (77 FR 9973).

The workers engage in activities related to the production of hard and soft cover books. The initial determination was based on the findings that worker separations were not attributable to increased imports by the subject firm or its declining customers of articles like or directly competitive with hard and soft cover books. The petitioners are currently producing articles like or directly competitive with hard and soft cover books.

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (“Act”), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on February 3, 2012, applicable to workers of PlumChoice, Inc., including on-site leased workers from Balance Staffing, Insight Global Staffing, and Technisource, Scarborough, Maine, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 13, 2010, through February 3, 2014, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed at Washington, DC this 28th day of February 2012.

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers by (TA–W) number issued during the period of February 20, 2012 through February 24, 2012.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for workers of a primary firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(a) of the Act must be met.

I. Under Section 222(a)(2)(A), the following must be satisfied:

1. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm have become totally or partially
