SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

This interim rule revises the DFARS to implement section 814(b) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012 (Pub. L. 112–81). Section 814(b) requires that the dollar limitation established in 10 U.S.C. 2253(a)(2) for the acquisition of right-hand drive passenger sedans be included on the list of dollar thresholds subject to inflation adjustment in accordance with the requirements of 41 U.S.C. 1908, and to adjust the threshold, as appropriate. 10 U.S.C. 2253(a)(2) is based on section 101(b) of the Fiscal Year 1986 Department of Defense Appropriations Act (Pub. L. 99–190). The threshold was previously amended from $12,000 per vehicle to $30,000 per vehicle in 1997 through section 805 of the Fiscal Year 1998 Department of Defense Appropriations Act (Pub. L. 105–85), enacted on November 18, 1997.

II. Discussion and Analysis

This interim rule revises the DFARS to implement section 814(b) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012 (Pub. L. 112–81) as follows:

- Adds DFARS 201.109(a) to include the dollar limitation for the acquisition of right-hand drive passenger sedans in the list of statutory acquisition-related dollar thresholds to be adjusted for inflation.
- Adds DFARS 212.271 to provide the escalated threshold of $40,000 per vehicle when acquiring right-hand drive passenger sedans.

III. Executive Orders 12866 and 13563

Executive Orders (E.O.s) 12866 and 13563 direct agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distributive impacts, and equity). E.O. 13563 emphasizes the importance of quantifying both costs and benefits, of reducing costs, of harmonizing rules, and of promoting flexibility. This is not a significant regulatory action and, therefore, was not subject to review under section 6(b) of E.O. 12866. Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993. This rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804.

IV. Regulatory Flexibility Act

DoD does not expect this rule to have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., because it merely adjusts upward the current limitation for acquisition of right-hand drive passenger vehicles from $30,000 to $40,000 due to inflation. Therefore, an initial regulatory flexibility analysis has not been performed. DoD invites comments from small business concerns and other interested parties on the expected impact of this rule on small entities.

DoD will also consider comments from small entities concerning the existing regulations in subparts affected by this rule in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 610. Interested parties must submit such comments separately and should cite 5 U.S.C. 610 (DFARS Case 2012–D016), in correspondence.

V. Paperwork Reduction Act

The rule does not contain any information collection requirements that require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35).

VI. Determination To Issue an Interim Rule

A determination has been made under the authority of the Secretary of Defense that urgent and compelling reasons exist to promulgate this interim rule without prior opportunity for public comment. This action is necessary because it implements section 814(b) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012 (Pub. L. 112–81), enacted on December 31, 2011. Section 814(b) requires escalating the current threshold for acquisition of right-hand drive passenger sedans from $30,000 to $40,000. Pursuant to paragraph (d) of 41 U.S.C. 1908, revised thresholds take effect on the date of publication in the Federal Register. The threshold was last amended from $12,000 per vehicle to $30,000 per vehicle in 1997 through section 805 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1998 (Pub. L. 105–85), enacted on November 18, 1997. Delaying implementation of the threshold adjustment may negatively impact contracting officers and the defense customers they support who require right-hand drive passenger sedans by restricting the purchase authority to the 1997 cost limitation of $30,000, without providing for adjustment due to inflation.

Transportation of personnel in right-hand drive passenger sedans is needed.
overseas for reasons of safety and security and will allow personnel to move to work locations necessary to achieve the mission of the United States military worldwide, including support of overseas contingency operations. However, pursuant to 41 U.S.C. 1707 and FAR 1.501–3(b), DoD will consider public comments received in response to this interim rule in the formation of the final rule.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

DoD published a proposed rule in the Federal Register at 76 FR 71922 on November 21, 2011, to separate provisions and clauses that are currently combined in order to comply with DFARS drafting conventions. A provision is included only in the solicitation, and generally includes representations and certifications, to which the offeror responds in its offer. A contract clause is included in both the solicitation and the resultant contract, and generally includes provisions that apply throughout contract performance. It is inconsistent with DFARS drafting conventions to combine a provision and a clause in a single clause. This rule removes the representations from the following five DFARS clauses and creates five new provisions to be used in solicitations that include the associated clauses:
