According to ATRR, there are no mileposts associated with the trackage, which is located at ATC’s transloading facility in St. Louis. ATRR also states that there are plans to phase in additional trackage that ATRR will operate.

ATRR asserts that because the trackage in question will constitute the entire line of railroad of ATRR, this trackage is a line of railroad under 49 U.S.C. 10901, rather than spur, switching or side tracks excepted from trackage is a line of railroad of ATRR, this additional trackage that ATRR will use for inbound carloads for transloading into the Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis, Mo. (the Line).

ATRR certifies that its projected annual revenues as a result of this transaction will not exceed levels that will qualify it as a Class III rail carrier.

If the verified notice contains false or misleading information, the exemption is void ab initio. Petitions to revoke the exemption under 49 U.S.C. 10502(d) may be filed at any time.
