

facing business, would be able to participate in the SLP program.

As noted above, the Exchange would continue to require that a DMM be registered in every security at the Exchange, and similar to NYSE Arca's market maker program, which has two classes of market maker, the SLMMs would provide supplemental liquidity in addition to the DMMs. Because the proposed SLMMs would be required to meet the Two-Sided Obligation applicable to all equities market makers, the Exchange believes that the proposed rule change would also remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system by increasing the number of market participants that are required to maintain a continuous two-sided quotation in the securities in which they are registered. The Exchange further believes that adding additional registered market makers would protect investors and the public interest by providing additional sources of liquidity for trading.

In addition, the Exchange believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act because the proposed requirements for the SLMMs are based on existing, approved requirements for registered market makers on other exchanges. In addition to the Two-Sided Obligation, the proposed SLMMs would also be required to assist in the maintenance of a fair and orderly market, as reasonably practicable, and maintain net capital consistent with federal requirements for market makers.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Within 45 days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or

(ii) as to which the self-regulatory organization consents, the Commission will:

- (A) By order approve or disapprove the proposed rule change, or
- (B) Institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

OSC proposes the following revisions to its Privacy Act system of records “OSC/GOVT-1—OSC Complaint, Litigation, and Political Activity Files.”

The system name has been revised from “OSC/GOVT-1—OSC Complaint, Litigation, and Political Activity Files” to “OSC/GOVT-1, OSC Complaint, Litigation, Political Activity, and Disclosure Files” to clarify that this system includes Disclosure Unit records. In addition, the system location and system manager address have been updated.

The categories of individuals covered have been modified to reflect current coverage. The description of categories of records in the system has been revised to more clearly describe the system’s records by including specific examples and descriptions.

The statement of authorities for maintenance of the system has been updated to add the Administrative Dispute Resolution Act of 1996 (Pub. L. 104-320), codified at 5 U.S.C. 571-574, and USERRA demonstration projects under Sec. 204 of the Veterans Benefits Improvement Act of 2004 (Pub. L. 108-454), and Sec. 105 of the Veterans Benefits Act of 2010 (Pub. L. 111-175), codified at 38 U.S.C. 4301 note. A purposes section has been added.

Revisions to the existing routine uses include the following:

(1) Routine use “g” has been revised: To clarify that disclosures under this provision include those disclosures required under 5 U.S.C. 1213; and to clarify that disclosures may be made as part of resolving an allegation by settlement or otherwise;

(2) Routine use “h” has been revised to add disclosures where necessary to obtain information relevant to an agency decision pertaining to the classification of a job;

(3) Routine use “k” has been revised to clarify that all functions authorized by laws, regulations, and policies governing National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) operations and OSC records management responsibilities are included;

(4) Routine use “m” has been revised to add that a disclosure may be made to the Department of Justice (DOJ) in order for OSC to request that DOJ represent an agency employee. In addition, routine uses “m” and “n” have been revised for clarification purposes;

(5) Routine use “p” has been revised to clarify that disclosures under this provision include notifying an Office of Inspector General (OIG) (or comparable office) of the disposition of matters referred by such office to the OSC;

(6) Routine use “r” has been revised to state that the reference to litigation under 38 U.S.C. 4324 includes “possible litigation,” and to add disclosures pertaining to a USERRA demonstration project, or to mediation by the U.S. Department of Defense, Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve.

Nine routine uses have been added. They are:

(1) Routine use “s” to disclose records, when OSC has agreed to represent a USERRA complainant under 38 U.S.C. 4324 (a)(2)(A), from the corresponding USERRA investigative file to the relevant USERRA litigation file, and to disclose records from the relevant USERRA litigation file to the USERRA complainant;

(2) Routine use “t” to disclose information to agency contractors, experts, consultants, detailees, or non-OSC employees performing or working on a contract, service, or other activity related to the system of records, when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to the system;

(3) Routine use “u” to make lists and reports available to the public as required by 5 U.S.C. 1219;

(4) Routine use “v” to make disclosures that may be needed in the case of a data breach, pursuant to OMB Memorandum M-07-16, “Safeguarding Against and Responding to the Breach of Personally Identifiable Information;

(5) Routine use “w” for disclosures to other agencies with subject matter expertise when needed;

(6) Routine use “x” for disclosures to appropriate authorities when violations or potential violations of law or regulation are indicated, and as required under 28 U.S.C. 535 and 5 U.S.C. 1214;

(7) Routine use “y” for necessary disclosures to the Integrity Committee of the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency;

(8) Routine use “z” for disclosures to DOJ and the Federal Bureau of Investigation required for inclusion in the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS), under the reporting requirements of the Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act, as amended by the NICS Improvement Amendments Act of 2007; and

(9) Routine use “aa” for disclosures that may be required when processing certain FOIA or Privacy Act matters.

The description of retrievability has been modified to reflect actual practices. The description of retention periods has been updated to reflect OSC’s current record retention practice. OSC is revising its record retention schedule in consultation with NARA. Records are maintained for the current or draft proposed retention period, whichever is longer.

The system manager contact information has been updated to reflect administrative changes within the agency.

The notification procedure has been revised to conform with the revisions to OSC’s regulations implementing the Privacy Act, published October 4, 2007 (72 FR 56617). The contact information has been changed to OSC’s Privacy Act Officer, rather than the system manager, to reflect current practice. The point-of-contact for contesting records has also been similarly revised. Reference to OSC’s Privacy Act regulations at 5 CFR part 1830 has been included in the records access and contesting records sections for consistency.

The description of record source categories has been revised to clarify that disclosures of information filed with OSC are included.

The description of exemptions claimed for the system has been updated to reflect the revisions to OSC’s regulations implementing the Privacy Act, published October 4, 2007 (72 FR 56617).

Finally, several “plain language” edits have been made throughout the notice.

The revised OSC/GOVT-1 reads:

OSC/GOVT-1

SYSTEM NAME:

OSC/GOVT-1, OSC Complaint, Litigation, Political Activity, and Disclosure Files.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

STORAGE:

These records are stored in a variety of media, primarily consisting of file folders, and computer storage equipment.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Files in this system of records are retrievable by the names of key individuals or agencies involved (e.g., complainants or requesters; persons on whose behalf OSC seeks corrective action; subjects identified in disciplinary proceedings, warning letters, or other determinations; legal, congressional, or other representatives or points of contact; or key witnesses), although files are generally retrieved by the name of: (a) The complainant alleging a prohibited personnel practice, or other prohibited activity; (b) the alleged subject of a complaint about prohibited political activity; (c) the person filing an allegation through the OSC whistleblower disclosure channel; (d) the name of the person filing a request for an advisory opinion on political activity, or the third party subject of such advisory opinions; (e) the name of the person on whose behalf OSC seeks corrective action, or the person against whom OSC seeks disciplinary action, in litigation before the MSPB; (f) the plaintiff in litigation or administrative claims against OSC; persons requesting discovery from OSC; and FOIA and Privacy Act requesters and appellants.

SAFEGUARDS:

These records are located in lockable file cabinets or in secured areas. The required use of computer password protection identification features and other system protection methods also restrict access. Access is limited to those agency personnel who have an official need for access to perform their duties.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Case file records related to allegations of prohibited personnel practices and other prohibited activities, including allegations of improper political activity, violations of USERRA, and other matters under OSC's jurisdiction, including program litigation records and records of the ADR Unit and the Disclosure Unit, that are of extraordinary importance to the nation or OSC, are permanent records when approved by the Special Counsel. Case file records of the Disclosure Unit that result in either a referral to an agency head pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 1213, or an informal referral to an agency's Inspector General, are retained for 10 years after the date of closure. Other case file records related to such prohibited activities, including program litigation, and the Disclosure Unit are retained for 6 years after the date of closure. Case file records of Formal Advisory Opinions of the Hatch Act Unit are retained for 6 years after the date of closure. Litigation case file records relating to the legal defense of OSC and its interests in matters and claims filed against the agency in courts, administrative tribunals, or other forums, including formal and informal discovery requests, and other claims or similar proceedings that are of extraordinary importance to the nation or OSC are permanent records when approved by the Special Counsel. All other such defensive litigation and claim case file records are retained for 7 years after the date of closure. Additionally, final signed settlement agreements are retained for 20 years after the date of closure. Personally identifiable information in OSC's electronic case tracking system is retained until deleted from the database 25 years after the corresponding case file is destroyed. Case file records related to OSC's FOIA and Privacy Act Program are retained in accordance with NARA's General Records Schedule 14 for Information Services Records. Disposal of records is accomplished by shredding or by NARA-approved processes. Electronic information is disposed of by deletion. OSC is revising its record retention schedule in consultation with NARA. Pending NARA approval of the revised records schedule, records are maintained for the current or proposed retention, whichever is longer.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

The official responsible for records management functions associated with OSC program and administrative files, including those in the OSC/GOVT-1 system of records, is the Records Management Officer, Document Control Branch, U.S. Office of Special Counsel, 1730 M Street NW., Suite 218, Washington, DC 20036-4505.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

Individuals who wish to inquire whether this system contains information about them should contact the Privacy Act Officer, U.S. Office of Special Counsel: (1) By mail at 1730 M Street NW., Suite 218, Washington, DC 20036-4505; (2) by telephone at 202-254-3600; or (3) by fax: at 202-653-5161. To assist in the process of locating and identifying records, individuals should furnish the following: Name and home address; business title and address; any other known identifying information such as an agency file number or identification number; a description of the circumstances under which the records were compiled; and any other information deemed necessary by OSC to properly process the request.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Same as notification procedure, above. Requesters should also reasonably specify the record contents being sought. Rules about access are in 5 CFR part 1830.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

Individuals who wish to contest records about them should contact OSC's Privacy Act Officer, identify any information they believe should be corrected, and furnish a statement of the basis for the requested correction along with all available supporting documents and materials. See OSC Privacy Act regulations at 5 CFR part 1830.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Information in this system of records is obtained from a variety of sources, consisting of complainants or others on whose behalf allegations, disclosures of information, or requests for information, have been submitted or referred to OSC; legal, congressional, or other representatives or points of contact; other government bodies; witnesses and subjects in matters under review; principals involved in litigation matters, including parties and their representatives; and other persons or entities furnishing information pertinent to the discharge of functions for which OSC is responsible.

EXEMPTIONS CLAIMED FOR THE SYSTEM:

OSC will claim exemptions from the provisions of the Privacy Act at subsections (c)(3) and (d) as permitted by subsection (k) for records subject to the Act that fall within the category of investigatory material described in paragraphs (2) and (5), and testing or examination material described in paragraph (6) of that subsection. The exemptions for investigatory material are necessary to prevent frustration of inquiries into allegations of prohibited personnel practices, unlawful political activity, whistleblower disclosures, USERRA violations, and other matters under OSC's jurisdiction, and to protect identities of confidential sources of information, including in background investigations of OSC employees, contractors, and other individuals conducted by or for OSC. The exemption for testing or examination material is necessary to prevent the disclosure of information which would potentially give an individual an unfair competitive advantage or diminish the utility of established examination procedures. OSC also reserves the right to assert exemptions for records received from another agency that could be properly claimed by that agency in responding to a request. OSC may also refuse access to any information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action or proceeding.
