Regulatory Flexibility Act Certification

I certify that the following action will not have a significant impact on a substantial number of small entities.
The major factors considered for this certification were:

1. If approved, the action will not result in any additional reporting, recordkeeping or other compliance requirements for small entities other than the small organizations that will provide the services to the Government.

2. If approved, the action will result in authorizing small entities to provide the services to the Government.

3. There are no known regulatory alternatives which would accomplish the objectives of the Javits-Wagner-O'Day Act (41 U.S.C. 8501-8506) in connection with the services proposed for addition to the Procurement List.

Comments on this certification are invited. Commenters should identify the

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: Qualitative Testing of Mortgage Servicing Related Model Forms and Disclosures.

OMB Number: 3170-0018.

Abstract: The Bureau seeks to allow for qualitative testing of mortgage servicing related model forms and disclosures. The research will result in the development of, and revisions to, proposed and final model forms and disclosures provided to consumers in connection with mortgage loan obligations after origination. The research activities will be conducted primarily by an external contractor employing cognitive psychological testing methods. This approach has been demonstrated to be feasible and valuable by the CFPB and other agencies in developing disclosures and other forms. The planned research activities will be conducted during FY 2012-2013 with the goal of creating effective disclosures and related materials for
