OMB Number: 3170-XXXX.
Abstract: The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (Dodd-Frank Act), Public Law 111-203, Title X, Section 1014 (12 U.S.C. 5494) requires the Director of the Bureau to establish a Consumer Advisory Board (CAB) to advise and consult with the Bureau in the exercise of its functions under the federal consumer financial laws, and to provide information on emerging practices in the consumer financial products or services industry, including regional trends, concerns, and other relevant information. In addition to the CAB, the Bureau anticipates that it may establish additional advisory boards, bodies, panels, committees or other similar groups (collectively referred to as "other Advisory Groups") to advise and consult with the Bureau in the exercise of its functions. The CAB and other Advisory Groups may invite individuals with special expertise to advise the groups on an ad hoc basis (Special Advisors).

The Bureau seeks to collect selection-related information from nominees to the CAB, such as background information, information related to financial disclosures, and other supplemental information relevant to the application process. The Bureau may collect similar information from potential candidates for other Advisory Groups, members of other Advisory Groups, and Special Advisors to CAB and other Advisory Groups, as relevant to the particular group.

This information collection will allow the Bureau to obtain information on the qualifications of individuals nominated to the CAB and will aid the Bureau in its selection of members for other Advisory Groups. The information collection also will aid the Bureau in selecting Special Advisors to the CAB and other Advisory Groups.

Once selected, Bureau staff may ask members of CAB and other Advisory Groups and Special Advisors, as part of their participation, to respond to questions asked to the CAB and other Advisory Groups or Special Advisors, or to provide information/advice based upon their expertise on issues before the CAB and other Advisory Groups related to the Bureau's exercise of its functions. Collection instruments for the CAB may include nomination forms with questions about assets and income, affiliations and representations, financial interests and liabilities, and relevant professional experience. Collection instruments for other Advisory Groups or for Special Advisors may include questionnaires about professional experience relevant to the particular group or may include certifications regarding financial interests relevant to a particular group or a particular meeting. Additionally, nominees, members, former members, and Special Advisors may be asked to provide information/feedback on their experiences as related to the selection process or participation in the group. Collection instruments likely will include feedback forms and other similar questionnaires about the participant's experience on or with the CAB or other Advisory Groups, including their experience with the Bureau's information collections.

Type of Review: New generic collection.

Affected Public: Individuals, and for certain groups individual business representatives.

Estimated Number of Responses: 277.

Estimated Time per Respondent: 25.

Estimated Total Annual Burden

Hours: 6,925.

Approved: May 23, 2012.

Chris Willey,

Chief Information Officer, Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection.
