Initial Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

In the Commission's FNPRM, FCC 12-42, it seeks comment on potential new information collection requirements. If the Commission adopts any new information collection requirement, the Commission will publish another notice in the Federal Register inviting the public to comment on the requirements, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) of 1995, Public Law 104-13 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). In addition, pursuant to the Small Business Paperwork Relief Act of 2002, in the Commission's FNPRM, it seeks comment on how it might "further reduce the information collection burden for small business concerns with fewer than 25 employees." The Commission's document DA 12-1039 does not contain new or modified information collection requirements subject to the PRA, Public Law 104-13. Therefore, it does not contain any new or modified information collection burden for small business concerns with few than 25 employees, pursuant to the Small Business Paperwork Relief Act of 2002, Public Law 107-198, see 44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(4).

Synopsis

Background

The Commission's document FCC 12-42 established a comment deadline of June 25, 2012, and a reply comment deadline of July 9, 2012. On June 26, 2012, the National Association of State Utility Consumer Advocates (NASUCA) requested that the reply comment deadline be extended by 30 days because of the volume of initial comments, the Fourth of July holiday, and the occurrence of NASUCA's midyear meeting during the reply comment period. The Commission grants NASUCA's request in part.

As stated in § 1.46(a) of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR 1.46(a), the Commission's policy is that extensions of time are not routinely granted. In the interest of encouraging development of a full record, the Commission believes that an extension of time is in the public interest and that an 11-day extension will provide adequate time for development of reply comments. The Commission grants an 11-day extension of the reply comment deadline.

Ordering Clause

Pursuant to sections 4(i) and 4(j) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. 154(i), (j), and §§ 0.141, 0.361, and 1.46 of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR 0.141, 0.361, 1.46, that the Motion for Extension of Time to File Reply Comments filed by the National Association of State Utility Consumer Advocates is granted to the extent indicated herein and is otherwise denied, and the deadline for filing reply comments in response to document FCC 12-42 is extended to July 20, 2012.

I. Introduction

To maintain America's leadership in technological innovation and promote economic growth, President Obama unveiled an initiative (Spectrum Initiative) in 2010 to reform spectrum policy and improve America's wireless infrastructure.¹ The broad vision outlined in the President's Spectrum Initiative is to attract public and private sector investment in emerging wireless broadband services and to promote the more efficient use of spectrum. One of the key themes of the President's Spectrum Initiative is the need for the U.S. Government to develop new tools and provide new incentives to free up spectrum from both Federal Government users and non-Federal licensees.² To that end, the Administration supported much-needed changes to the Commercial Spectrum
