This notice also lists the following information:

Title of Proposal: Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) Application Form.
OMB Approval Number: 2577–Pending.
Form Numbers: HUD 5260, HUD 5261.

Description of the Need for the Information and Its Proposed Use

The Rental Assistance Demonstration allows Public Housing and Moderate Rehabilitation (Mod Rehab) properties to convert to long-term Section 8 rental assistance contracts; and Rent Supplement (Rent Supp), Rental Assistance Payment (RAP), and Mod Rehab properties, upon contract expiration or termination, to convert tenant protection vouchers (TPVs) to project-based vouchers (PBVs). Participation in the initiative will be voluntary. Public Housing Agencies and Mod Rehab owners interested in participating in the Demonstration are required to submit applications to HUD. HUD intends through the conversion process, to assure the physical and financial sustainability of properties and enable owners to leverage private financing to address immediate and long-term capital needs, improve operations, and implement energy efficiency improvements. The RAD applications are Excel based and will be interest as soon as possible. For complete details concerning the processing of applications, the reader is encouraged to refer to the interim rule governing this program, 24 CFR part 581.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Purpose and Substantive Description

This Federal Register Notice provides the Department's methodology to determine the Calendar Year 2012 administrative fees rates by area, which the Office of Housing Voucher Programs (OHVP) will utilize to compensate public housing agencies (PHAs) for administering the Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program. PIH Notice 2012-9 entitled, Implementation of the Federal Fiscal Year (FY) 2012 Funding Provision for the Housing Choice Voucher Program, issued on February 8, 2012,¹ describes the settlement process for this compensation, which will be a result of the mandate enacted in the "Consolidated and Furthering Continuing Appropriations Act, 2012" (Pub. L. 112-55, approved November 18, 2011) (FY 2012 Appropriation Act).

B. Methodology History

Section 8 Administrative Fees are based on the higher of the FY 1993 Fair Market Rent (FMR) for a two-bedroom unit in a PHA's market area or the FY 1994 FMR for a two-bedroom unit, but not more than 103.5 percent of the FY 1993 FMR. This Fee Base is also subject to a $428 minimum and a $811 maximum. (The average FMR in 1993 was $555).

FMR areas (Fee Base areas) were updated in 2005 to new OMB metropolitan area definitions. Where a new metropolitan area is made up of more than one old metropolitan area, the fee base for the largest of the old areas in the new area was used.

Prior to 2005, the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 (Pub. L. 105-276) (QHWRA) required renewals to be based on the per unit cost from a PHA's latest year-end settlement statement for 100 percent of expiring annual contribution contract (ACC) units. Since then, HUD has made changes to how it calculates the administrative fees for PHAs administering the Section 8 programs. These changes have been caused by budgetary mandates rather than research on what it actually costs to administer a well-run program.

When the voucher program was introduced, administrative fees were set at 6.5% of the two-bedroom FMR. Administrative Fees had three components, ongoing, preliminary, and hard-to-house fees. In FY 2003, a flat fee was implemented, which was calculated based on the amount each PHA was eligible to receive in CY 2003. This calculation used the Column A and Column B published rates to determine the fees. This change meant that PHAs would receive a set amount regardless of leasing. This methodology for calculating administrative fees was the basis for determining fee funding in 2004 through 2007.

The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2008 (Pub. L. 110-161, approved December 26, 2007), changed the methodology again for calculating fees back to Section 8 (q) pre-QHWRA where fees are now based on the leasing reported in the Voucher Management System. This same methodology has been applied in each year since 2007 because Congress has continued to require that the same standard be used in the relevant appropriations acts.

The Fee Base numbers are updated annually using Bureau of Labor Statistics data on average local government wages at the State metropolitan and nonmetropolitan level. The Congress has changed the percentage of the fee base used to reimburse administrative costs three times since the current system was established. The following chart shows the history of admin fee rates for Column A and Column B.

Fiscal year	First 600 units (percent)	Additional units (percent)
1995 and 1996	8.2	7.79
1997	7.5	7
1998 and 1999	7.65	7
2000 through 2012	7.5	7
