Web site or online service directed to children means a commercial Web site or online service, or portion thereof, that:

- (a) Knowingly targets children under age 13 as its primary audience; or,
- (b) based on the overall content of the Web site or online service, is likely to attract children under age 13 as its primary audience; or,
- (c) based on the overall content of the Web site or online service, is likely to attract an audience that includes a disproportionately large percentage of children under age 13 as compared to the percentage of such children in the general population; provided however that such Web site or online service shall not be deemed to be directed to children if it: (i) Does not collect personal information from any visitor prior to collecting age information; and (ii) prevents the collection, use, or disclosure of personal information from visitors who identify themselves as under age 13 without first obtaining verifiable parental consent; or,
- (d) knows or has reason to know that it is collecting personal information through any Web site or online service covered under paragraphs (a)–(c).

In determining whether a commercial Web site or online service, or a portion thereof, is directed to children, the Commission will consider its subject matter, visual content, use of animated characters or child-oriented activities and incentives, music or other audio content, age of models, presence of child celebrities or celebrities who appeal to children, language or other characteristics of the Web site or online service, as well as whether advertising promoting or appearing on the Web site or online service is directed to children. The Commission will also consider competent and reliable empirical evidence regarding audience composition, and evidence regarding the intended audience. A commercial Web site or online service, or a portion thereof, shall not be deemed directed to children solely because it refers or links to a commercial Web site or online service directed to children by using information location tools, including a directory, index, reference, pointer, or hypertext link.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark,
Secretary.
