When considering the totality of the circumstances, factors to be considered may include, among others: The nature of the activities committed by the terrorist organization, including the extent to which the activities have targeted noncombatant persons; the alien's awareness of those activities; the amount, type, and frequency of material support or solicitation provided; the length and nature of military-type training provided; the length of time since material support or solicitation was provided, or military-type training was received, and the alien's conduct since that time; and any other relevant factor.
