

written submissions on the issues identified in this notice. Parties to the investigation, interested government agencies, OUII, and any other interested agencies are encouraged to file written submissions on the issues of remedy, the public interest, and bonding. Such submissions should address the recommended determination by the ALJ on remedy and bonding. Complainant is also requested to submit proposed remedial orders for the Commission's consideration. Complainant is also requested to state the dates that the patents expire and the HTSUS numbers under which the accused products are imported. The written submissions and proposed remedial orders must be filed no later than close of business on September 14, 2012. Initial submissions are limited to 100 pages, not including any attachments or exhibits related to discussion of the remedy, bonding or public interest. Reply submissions must be filed no later than the close of business on September 21, 2012. Reply submissions are limited to 50 pages, not including any attachments or exhibits related to discussion of the remedy, bonding or public interest. No further submissions on these issues will be permitted unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

Persons filing written submissions must file the original document electronically on or before the deadlines stated above and submit 8 true paper copies to the Office of the Secretary by noon the next day pursuant to section 210.4(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 210.4(f)). Submissions should refer to the investigation number ("Inv. No. 337-TA-754") in a prominent place on the cover page and/or the first page. (See Handbook for Electronic Filing Procedures, http://www.usitc.gov/secretary/fed_reg_notices/rules/handbook_on_electronic_filing.pdf). Persons with questions regarding filing should contact the Secretary (202-205-2000).

Any person desiring to submit a document to the Commission in confidence must request confidential treatment. All such requests should be directed to the Secretary to the Commission and must include a full statement of the reasons why the Commission should grant such treatment. See 19 CFR 201.6. Documents for which confidential treatment by the Commission is properly sought will be treated accordingly. A redacted non-confidential version of the document must also be filed simultaneously with any confidential filing. All non-confidential written submissions will be available for public inspection at the Office of the Secretary and on EDIS.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in sections 210.42-46 and 210.50 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 210.42-46 and 210.50).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: August 30, 2012.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-709 (Third Review)]

Certain Seamless Carbon and Alloy Steel; Standard, Line, and Pressure Pipe From Germany

Determination

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject five-year review, the United States International Trade Commission (Commission) determines, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)), that revocation of the antidumping duty order on certain seamless carbon and alloy steel standard, line, and pressure pipe from Germany would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.²

Background

The Commission instituted this review on April 2, 2012 (77 FR 19711) and determined on July 6, 2012, that it would conduct an expedited review (77 FR 42763, July 20, 2012).

The Commission transmitted its determination in this review to the Secretary of Commerce on August 30, 2012. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 4348 (August 2012), entitled Certain Seamless Carbon and Alloy Steel Standard, Line, and Pressure Pipe from Germany: Investigation No. 731-TA-709 (Third Review).

By order of the Commission.

¹ The record is defined in sec. 207.2(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 207.2(f)).

² Commissioner Deanna Tanner Okun did not participate in this review. Commissioner Daniel R. Pearson did not vote in this review.

Issued: August 31, 2012.

Lisa R. Barton,

Acting Secretary to the Commission.

BILLING CODE 7020-02-P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act

Notice is hereby given that on August 28, 2012, a proposed Consent Decree in United States v. Cornell-Dubilier Electronics, Inc., Civil Action No. 12-cv-05407 JLL-MAH, was lodged with the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey.

The proposed Consent Decree resolves the United States' and the State of New Jersey's cost recovery and natural resource damages claims against Cornell-Dubilier Electronics, Inc. ("CDE") under Section 107(a) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq., relating to the Cornell-Dubilier Electronics, Inc. Superfund Site ("Site") located in South Plainfield, New Jersey.

In the proposed Consent Decree, CDE and the United States and New Jersey agree to a stipulated judgment amount, 80 percent of the sum of the response cost and natural resource damage claims of the United States and New Jersey, or $367,453,449. CDE has agreed to pay, on a sliding scale, between 75 and 100 percent of insurance recoveries it receives to the United States and New Jersey. In addition to the potential recovery of insurance proceeds, CDE will make payments to the United States and New Jersey over three years totaling $1.11 million. All of these CDE payments will be divided between EPA, New Jersey, and the natural resource trustees. CDE will also place, as necessary, up to a total of $3.25 million into an escrow account to fund its state court insurance litigation. Finally, the Decree also resolves potential contribution claims and the State's cost claims against the Department of Defense and the General Services Administration. The federal agencies will pay $16,282,685 toward the United States' and the State's total past and estimated future response costs and natural resource damages.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General,
