

however, cover records of only one office or program or a few series of records. Many of these update previously approved schedules, and some include records proposed as permanent.

The schedules listed in this notice are media neutral unless specified otherwise. An item in a schedule is media neutral when the disposition instructions may be applied to records regardless of the medium in which the records are created and maintained. Items included in schedules submitted to NARA on or after December 17, 2007, are media neutral unless the item is limited to a specific medium. (See 36 CFR 1225.12(e).)

No Federal records are authorized for destruction without the approval of the Archivist of the United States. This approval is granted only after a thorough consideration of their administrative use by the agency of origin, the rights of the Government and of private persons directly affected by the Government's activities, and whether or not they have historical or other value.

Besides identifying the Federal agencies and any subdivisions requesting disposition authority, this public notice lists the organizational unit(s) accumulating the records or indicates agency-wide applicability in the case of schedules that cover records that may be accumulated throughout an agency. This notice provides the control number assigned to each schedule, the total number of schedule items, and the number of temporary items (the records proposed for destruction). It also includes a brief description of the temporary records. The records schedule itself contains a full description of the records at the file unit level as well as their disposition. If NARA staff has prepared an appraisal memorandum for the schedule, it too includes information about the records. Further information about the disposition process is available on request.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Subject of the Competition

The National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) is seeking a new design for the National Humanities Medal, which is bestowed annually by the President of the United States in a White House ceremony. NEH is one of the largest funders of humanities programs in the United States. NEH grants typically go to cultural institutions, such as museums, archives, libraries, colleges, universities, public television and radio stations, and to individual scholars. (Visit the NEH Web site, www.neh.gov.) The National Humanities Medal, inaugurated in 1997, honors individuals or groups who have made outstanding contributions to the humanities. Past winners have included author Toni Morrison, historian Stephen Ambrose, filmmaker Steven Spielberg, and Nobel laureate Elie Wiesel. It is a distinguished group of thinkers who deserve a glorious medal. A full list of medal recipients is available at www.neh.gov/about/awards/national-humanities-medals. The new medal is intended to premiere at the 2013 National Humanities Medal ceremony and will serve the NEH far into the future.

Your design may not contain any material that is inappropriate, indecent, obscene, hateful, defamatory, or in any way disparaging. Your design cannot have been submitted previously in another promotion or contest of any kind.

(b) You understand and agree that if your entry is selected as the winning design, it may be modified or altered by NEH, in its sole discretion, as deemed appropriate or necessary to execute, produce, or distribute the winning design in its final medal format.

(c) The winning contestant will, in consideration of the prize to be awarded, grant to NEH an irrevocable, royalty-free, exclusive worldwide license to reproduce, distribute, copy, display, create derivative works, and publicly post, link to, and share, the winning design or parts thereof, for the purpose of the competition and for any official NEH purpose.

8. NEH reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to cancel, suspend, and/or modify the competition for any reason, which includes the right to decline to select a winning design if NEH determines that no submission satisfactorily meets the selection criteria.

9. By participating in this competition, you are providing your full and unconditional agreement to abide by the rules set forth in this notice, and by the Humanities Medal Design Competition Official Rules found at humanitiesmedaldesign.challenge.gov.

Process for Participants To Register for the Competition

NEH will accept submissions only through challenge.gov.

1. Create an account on humanitiesmedaldesign.challenge.gov or log in with an existing ChallengePost account.

2. On humanitiesmedaldesign.challenge.gov, click “Accept this challenge” to register your interest in participating. This step ensures that you will receive important competition updates.

As a registered contestant, you will then be able to enter the competition by submitting an application that conforms to the requirements set forth herein.

4. Create a new visual design for the National Humanities Medal. NEH invites thoughtful and creative solutions for a new National Humanities Medal. Translating the idea of the humanities—the study of literature, philosophy, history, and other subjects—into a visual form is a challenging task. (For more about the humanities, visit the NEH Web site, www.neh.gov.) The design should reflect the importance of the award and of the humanities in a graceful, insightful, and ultimately beautiful manner.

a) Your design must include the following: The words “National Humanities Medal” and a blank area on the back of the medal of at least 3 by 1.5 inches. The name of the medalist will be engraved here.

b) Things to keep in mind as you draft a design: The medal hangs on a ribbon around the neck; the diameter of the medal should be between 3 to 4 inches; the design can use realistic or abstract elements to convey the idea of the humanities; designs should indicate relief depths, if possible, and make suggestions for type of metal, materials, patinas, and/or colors to be used.

5. Confirm that you have read and agreed to the Official Rules.

6. Submit a scanned drawing, a digital drawing, or a photograph of a sculpted model to humanitiesmedal.design.challenge.gov between October 1, 2012, at 9:00 a.m. EST and February 1, 2013, at 5:00 p.m. EDT by uploading a ZIP, PDF, or Word file up to 10 MB. Include written text using the description summary area to describe the thought process behind the design and how it relates to the humanities.

Amount of the Prize

The winning contestant will receive $3,000 by electronic transfer and be invited to an unveiling of the final medal in Washington DC Awards may be subject to Federal income taxes, and NEH will comply with the Internal Revenue Service withholding and reporting requirements, where applicable.

Basis Upon Which Winner Will Be Selected

NEH will select a judging panel that will consist of 4–7 outside experts, chosen for their achievements in the fields of art, sculpture, minting, and cultural management, along with 2–3 representatives of NEH. Judges will be fair and impartial. A judge may not have a familial or financial relationship with an individual who is a registered contestant in the competition. Judges will fully comply with all applicable government ethics requirements for Federal employees.

Judges will use the following criteria to judge the submitted designs:

1. Design relates to the humanities. The subjects and ideas of the humanities—literature, history, philosophy—need to be conveyed in the design of the medal. This may be done through a realistic or abstract design.

2. Design will translate into a three-dimensional medal. Ultimately, the design needs to be translated into a three-dimensional medal. A winning design, which may be two-dimensional, will have to be adapted by an artisan in order to create a sculpture for the medal. Can this design become a successful bas-relief medal?

3. Design can be replicated. Between 10 and 12 medals need to be struck each year to present to National Humanities Medalists. Can this design be replicated successfully, without excessive cost, for many years to come?

4. Beauty of design. Is the design graceful, elegant, and to be cherished by its recipient? Is it worthy of a Presidential medal?

The judging panel will judge the submissions to advise the Chairman of NEH, who will choose the final winning design. All judging will take place between approximately February 15, 2013, and approximately April 10, 2013. NEH will announce the winner on or about April 15, 2013.
