§ 52.220 Identification of plan.

A. Background

GSA reviewed the FTR for accuracy and currency and is consequently publishing this amendment to update certain sections in Chapters 300 and 301 that pertain to definitions, web addresses, meal deductions, miscellaneous expenses, and other travel-related clarifications and updates. This amendment also adds a section that permits agencies to issue blanket actual expense authorizations for any employee who performs TDY travel in an area subject to a Presidential-Declared Disaster.

Accordingly, this final rule amends the FTR by:

1. Section 300–3.1—Revising the term “Incidental expenses” under the definition for “Per diem allowance.” These changes permit reimbursement of fees and tips, exclude mailing costs associated with filing travel vouchers and charge card bill payments, and remove the current transportation reimbursement as this expense is reimbursable via separate provisions in FTR part 301–10.

2. Section 301–2.5—Referencing the new blanket actual expense authorization pursuant to 301–70.201.

3. Section 301–10.421—Updating the heading to include valet parking attendants.

4. Section 301–11.6—Updating regulatory references and web address information in the table pertaining to maximum per diem rates and actual expense rates.

5. Section 301–11.7—Changing the term “lodging location” to “lodging facility” in determining maximum per diem reimbursement rates.

6. Section 301–11.16—Indicating that for Government-provided meals on travel days, the entire allocated meal amount must be deducted from the decreased 75 percent rate.

7. Section 301–11.26—Revising to focus on how to request a review of a location’s per diem rate.

8. Section 301–11.29—Updating the web address for state tax exemption information.

9. Section 301–11.30—Referencing the new blanket actual expense authorization pursuant to 301–70.201.

10. Section 301–11.300—Revising “natural disasters” to read “natural or manmade disasters” and adding Presidential-Declared Disasters to the list of special events warranting actual expense reimbursement.

11. Section 301–11.301—Referencing the new blanket actual expense authorization pursuant to 301–70.201.

12. Section 301–11.302—Referencing the new blanket actual expense authorization pursuant to 301–70.201.

13. Section 301–52.4—Removing the reference to a “fixed reduced per diem allowance.”

14. Section 301–70.200—Referencing the new blanket actual expense authorization pursuant to 301–70.201.

15. Section 301–70.201—Adding a new section which gives agencies the authority to issue a blanket authorization for actual expense reimbursement in the event of a Presidential-Declared Disaster.

16. Section 301–71.105—Referencing the new blanket actual expense authorization pursuant to 301–70.201.

B. Summary of Comments Received

GSA received no comments on the interim rule published in the Federal Register on September 7, 2011 (76 FR 55273).

C. Executive Order 12866 and Executive Order 13563

Executive Orders (E.O.s) 12866 and 13563 direct agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distributive impacts, and equity). E.O. 13563 emphasizes the importance of quantifying both costs and benefits, of reducing costs, of harmonizing rules, and of promoting flexibility. This is not a significant regulatory action and, therefore, was not subject to review under Section 6(b) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993. This rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804.

D. Regulatory Flexibility Act

This final rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., because the revisions are not considered substantive. This final rule is also exempt from the Regulatory Flexibility Act per 5 U.S.C. 553 [a][2] because it applies to agency management. However, this final rule is being published to provide transparency in the promulgation of Federal policies.

E. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply because the changes to the FTR do not impose recordkeeping or information collection requirements, or the collection of information from offerors, contractors, or members of the public that require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under 44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.

F. Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act

This final rule is also exempt from Congressional review prescribed under 5 U.S.C. 801 since it relates solely to agency management and personnel.

[Docket No. EP 716]

Civil Monetary Penalty Inflation Adjustment Rule

AGENCY: Surface Transportation Board.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Surface Transportation Board (Board) is issuing a final rule to adjust the Board’s civil monetary penalties for inflation on a periodic basis pursuant to the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act of 1990, as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996. Prior to the issuance of this rule, the Board’s penalties have not been adjusted for inflation since they were prescribed in the Interstate Commerce Commission Termination Act of 1995 (ICCTA). As mandated by the Debt Collection Improvement Act, the Board’s initial increase of its penalties cannot exceed 10%. The Board is required to review its penalties again at least once every four years thereafter and adjust them as necessary for inflation according to a specified formula.

DATES: This rule is effective on October 22, 2012.

ADDRESSES: Information or questions regarding this final rule should be directed to the Office of Proceedings, Surface Transportation Board, 305 E. Street SW., Washington, DC 20423–0001.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background. The Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 (DCIA), Public Law 104–134, 110 Stat. 1321, amended the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act of 1990, Public Law 101–410, 104 Stat. 890 (codified as amended at 28 U.S.C. 2461 note), to require each federal agency to adopt regulations at least once every four years that adjust for inflation the maximum amount of civil monetary penalties under the statutes administered by the agency.1 As defined, a civil monetary penalty is a statutorily prescribed specific amount, or maximum amount, provided by federal law that can be assessed by a federal agency and that can be enforced by the agency pursuant to an administrative proceeding or a civil action in a federal court. Congress passed this legislation on the basis of its findings that: (1) The power to impose civil monetary penalties is important to deterring violations of federal law and furthering the policy goals of federal laws and regulations; and (2) inflation has diminished the impact of these penalties.

Under the DCIA, the inflation adjustment is calculated by increasing the maximum civil monetary penalty amount per violation by the Cost-of-Living Adjustment, which is the percentage (if any) by which the Consumer Price Index for June of the year preceding the adjustment exceeds the Consumer Price Index for June of the year the civil monetary penalty amount was last set or adjusted, multiplied by the statutory maximum amount, rounded to the nearest specified amount using the formula contained in the statute. The DCIA requires agencies to round off the increase of each civil monetary penalty depending on its dollar amount: if the penalty is greater than $0 and less than or equal to $100, the increase is to be rounded to the nearest $10; if the penalty is greater than $100, but less than or equal to $1,000, the increase is to be rounded to the nearest $100; if the penalty is greater than $1,000 but less than or equal to $10,000, the increase is to be rounded to the nearest multiple of $1,000; if the penalty is greater than $10,000 but less than or equal to $100,000, the increase is to be rounded to the nearest multiple of $5,000; if the penalty is greater than $100,000 but less than or equal to $200,000, the increase is to be rounded to the nearest multiple of $10,000; and lastly, if the penalty is greater than $200,000, the increase is to be rounded to the nearest $25,000.

Discussion. The statutory definition of civil penalty covers the civil penalty provisions under the Rail Carrier (Part A), Motor and Water Carriers (Part B), and Pipeline Carrier (Part C) provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act (ICA), as amended by ICCTA. The Board’s civil (and criminal) penalty authority related to rail transportation appears at 49 U.S.C. 11901–11908. The Board’s penalty authority related to motor carriers, water carriers, brokers, and freight forwarders appears at 49 U.S.C. 14901–14915. The Board’s penalty authority related to 1 Agency means an Executive agency as defined under 5 U.S.C. 105. “Executive agency” includes an “independent establishment,” which is defined at 5 U.S.C. 104 in relevant part as “an establishment in the executive branch” that is not an “Executive department.” For purposes of the requirements of the DCIA, we determine that the Board is a covered agency.
