

continued to enhance the listing experience and has invested in its regulatory and compliance program.⁸ These initiatives have been funded through listing fees, including the Capital Market annual fee.

Nasdaq also believes that the proposed changes are equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because they would apply equally to all companies listed on the Capital Market. While the increase on ADRs would be implemented over two years, this is also equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because these companies currently pay lower fees based on a recognition that the U.S. listing is not typically their primary listing. While Nasdaq believes it is equitable to charge them the same fee as other companies because they receive the same benefits from their listing, the Exchange also believes that implementing the increase over two years will help reduce its impact and is appropriate given the currently reduced fees that they pay. Nasdaq also notes that other exchanges charge the same annual fee for ADRs as for other securities.⁹

Finally, NASDAQ notes that it operates in a highly competitive market in which market participants can readily switch exchanges if they deem the listing fees excessive.¹⁰ In such an environment, NASDAQ must continually review its fees to assure that they remain competitive. In that regard, Nasdaq notes that the proposed fees remain similar to the fees charged by NYSE MKT.¹¹

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any Securities Exchange Act Release No. 50838 (December 10, 2004), 69 FR 75578 (December 17, 2004) (approving SR-NASD-2004-128).

⁹ See, e.g., NYSE MKT Listed Company Guide Section 220(b); NYSE Listed Company Manual Section 902.03.

¹⁰ The Justice Department recently noted the intense competitive environment for exchange listings. See "NASDAQ OMX Group Inc. and IntercontinentalExchange Inc. Abandon Their Proposed Acquisition Of NYSE Euronext After Justice Department Threatens Lawsuit" (May 16, 2011), available at http://www.justice.gov/atr/public/press_releases/2011/271214.htm.

¹¹ NYSE MKT has proposed to charge annual fees in 2013 that range from $30,000 to $45,000, based on a company's shares outstanding. See SR-NYSEMKT-2012-51 (filed September 28, 2012) [sic].

burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended. The market for listing services is extremely competitive and listed companies may freely choose alternative venues. For this reason, and the reasons discussed in connection with the statutory basis for the proposed rule change, Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition for listings.
