SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

In that final rule, the FAA revised the requirements for siting explosives under a license to operate a launch site. The rule increased flexibility for launch site operators in site planning for the storage and handling of energetic liquids and explosives. In the discussion of the Overview of the Final Rule, the FAA explained that it was dispensing with the hazard groups of tables E–3 through E–6 of appendix E of Title 14, Code of Federal Regulations part 420 as a means of classification to be consistent with the Department of Defense (DOD) Explosives Safety Board (DDESB) and National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) practices. In the full title of DDESB, the FAA inadvertently used the word “siting” instead of “safety.” The FAA is now correcting the error to properly identify DDESB.

Correction to Preamble

1. On page 55109, in the first column, in the first paragraph under Section I, correct “Department of Defense (DOD) Explosives Siting Board (DDESB)” to read “Department of Defense (DOD) Explosives Safety Board (DDESB)”.

Issued in Washington, DC on January 2, 2013.

Director, Office of Rulemaking.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Commission is revising delegations of authority to the Office of General Counsel, replacing delegations to the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions and Review with delegations to the General Counsel. The reason for this change is due to the elimination of the position of Deputy General Counsel for Opinions and Review under a reorganization within the Office of General Counsel. The revisions will permit the General Counsel to sub-delegate authority to any Commission employee under his or her supervision.

I. Rules Being Amended

The following CFTC rules are being amended.

A. 17 CFR 9.9

CFTC rule 9.9 delegates certain authority to the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions and Review. Currently, the rule authorizes the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions and Review or his/her designee to handle certain procedural and technical matters and, in his/her discretion, to submit matters otherwise falling within this rule to the Commission for its consideration. The CFTC is changing the rule to grant this authority to the General Counsel. As a result, references to the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions and Review in rule 9.9 have been changed to the General Counsel, and to any employee under the General Counsel’s supervision as he or she may designate.

B. 17 CFR 12.10

CFTC rule 12.10(a)(3) sets forth all the persons upon whom the Proceedings Clerk must serve all notices, rulings, opinions, and orders. This list of persons includes the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions and Review. The rule is being revised such that all references to the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions and Review in rule 12.10 have been changed to the General Counsel, and permits the General Counsel to sub-delegate this authority to any Commission employee under his or her supervision.

C. 17 CFR 12.408

CFTC rule 12.408 is titled “Delegation of Authority to the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions.” The text of the rule delegates certain functions to the General Counsel and not the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions. In order to conform the title of the section to the substance of the section, the reference in the title of the section has been changed to “Delegation of Authority to the General Counsel.”

D. 17 CFR 171.1(c)

CFTC rule 171.1(c) provides the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions the authority to strike a notice of appeal in certain circumstances. All references to the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions in rule 171.1(c) have been changed to the General Counsel, or the General Counsel’s delegate.

E. 17 CFR 171.50

CFTC rule 171.50 delegates certain authority to the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions. The current rule authorizes the Deputy General Counsel for Opinions and Review or his/her designee to handle certain procedural and technical matters and, in his/her discretion, to submit matters otherwise falling within this rule to the Commission for its consideration. References in rule 171.50 have been changed to the General Counsel.

II. Administrative Compliance

A. Administrative Procedure Act

The Administrative Procedure Act does not require notice of the proposed rulemaking and an opportunity for public participation in connection with these amendments, as they relate solely to agency organization, procedure and practice. For the same reason, these rules will become effective upon publication in the Federal Register.

Pursuant to the authority contained in the Commodity Exchange Act, in particular section 2(a)(4), 7 U.S.C. 2(a)(4), the CFTC corrects part 9, 12 and 171 of Title 17 of the Code of Federal regulations as described below.

B. Paperwork Reduction Act and Regulatory Flexibility Act

This rulemaking does not contain any collections of information for which the Commission must seek a control number under the Paperwork Reduction Act. Moreover, the Regulatory Flexibility Act requires the Commission to consider whether a rulemaking will... have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small businesses only when the agency is obligated to publish a general notice of proposed rulemaking under section 553(b). As this rulemaking relates to agency organization and procedure, and therefore is not subject to notice and comment under section 553(b), a regulatory flexibility analysis is not required.4

Issued in Washington, DC on December 31, 2012, by the Commission.

Sauntia S. Warfield,
Assistant Secretary of the Commission.
