SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background: As requested, the Commission will deliver two reports to the Committee. The first report, Digital Trade in the U.S and Global Economies, Part I, will:

- Describe U.S. digital trade in the context of the broader economy;
- Examine U.S. and global digital trade, the relationship to other cross-border transactions (e.g., foreign direct investment), and the extent to which digital trade facilitates and enables trade in other sectors;
- Describe notable barriers and impediments to digital trade; and
- Outline potential approaches for assessing the linkages and contributions of digital trade to the U.S. economy, noting any challenges associated with data gaps and limitations. Such contributions and linkages may include effects on consumer welfare, output, productivity, innovation, business practices, and job creation.

For the purposes of the report, the Commission is defining “digital trade” to encompass commerce in products and services delivered over digital networks. Examples include software, digital media files (e.g., e-books and digital audio files), and services such as data processing and hosting. The report will also examine how other industries, such as financial services and retailing, make use of digital products and services for production and trade.

The Commission will institute a second investigation at a later date for the purpose of preparing the second report. As requested by the Committee, the second report will build on the first report to:

- Estimate the value of U.S. digital trade and the potential growth of this trade;
- Examine the broader linkages and contributions of digital trade to the U.S. economy;
- Present case studies that examine the importance of digital trade to selected U.S. industries that use or produce such goods and services; and
- Examine the effect of notable barriers and impediments to digital trade on selected industries and the broader U.S. economy.

The second report will be delivered to the Committee within 19 months. More information regarding the second report will be made available when the second investigation is instituted.

Public Hearing: A public hearing in connection with these investigations will be held at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC, beginning at 9:30 a.m. on March 7, 2013. Requests to appear at the public hearing should be filed with the Secretary, no later than 5:15 p.m., February 21, 2013, in accordance with the requirements in the “Submissions” section below. In the event that, as of the close of business on February 21, 2013, no witnesses are scheduled to appear at the hearing, the hearing will be canceled. Any person interested in attending the hearing as an observer or nonparticipant should contact the Office of the Secretary at 202–205–2000 after February 21, 2013, for information concerning whether the hearing will be held.

In the event that confidential treatment of a document is requested, interested parties must file, at the same time as the eight paper copies, at least four (4) additional true paper copies in which the confidential information must be deleted (see the following paragraph for further information regarding confidential business information). Persons with questions regarding electronic filing should contact the Secretary (202–205–2000).

Any submissions that contain confidential business information (CBI) must also conform with the requirements of section 201.6 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 201.6). All written submissions, except for confidential business information, will be made available for inspection by interested parties. In its request letter, the Committee stated that it intends to make the Commission's reports available to the public in their entirety, and asked that the Commission not include any confidential business information or national security classified information in the reports that the Commission sends to the Committee.
