

OSHA will place all submissions, including any personal information, in the public docket without revision. Therefore, OSHA cautions commenters about submitting statements they do not want made public, or submissions that contain personal information (either about themselves or others) such as Social Security numbers, birth dates, and medical data. To read or download submissions or other material in the docket (e.g., public submissions of suggested topics), go to <http://www.regulations.gov> or to the OSHA Docket Office. All documents placed in the docket will be referenced electronically at <http://www.regulations.gov> (Docket ID: OSHA-2012-0055); however, some information (e.g., copyrighted material) is not publicly available to read or download through the Web site. All submissions, including copyrighted material, will be available for inspection at the OSHA Docket Office. Contact the OSHA Docket Office for assistance in locating docket submissions.
