document does not guarantee that you will be permitted to reenter the United States, as that is a decision that will be made by an immigration officer at the port of entry upon your return. If you seek advance parole to travel to Liberia or to your country of last habitual residence outside the United States, you will risk being found ineligible to reenter the United States under DED because the Presidential Memorandum excludes persons “[who have voluntarily returned to Liberia or his or her country of last habitual residence outside the United States.]”

You may submit your completed Application for Travel Document (Form I–131) with your Application for Employment Authorization (Form I–765). If you choose to file an Application for Travel Document (Form I–131) separately, please submit the application along with supporting documentation that you qualify for DED to the proper address in Table 2.
