SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title of Collection: Generic Clearance for Qualitative Consumer Education and Engagement Information Collections.

OMB Control Number: 3170–XXXX.

Type of Review: New generic collection.

Affected Public: Individuals or Households, and Business or other for-profit, not-for-profit institutions, Farms,

Federal government, State, Local or Tribal government.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 3,000.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 15,000.

Abstract: Under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, Public Law 111–203, Section 1013(d), the Bureau’s Office of Financial Education is responsible for developing and implementing initiatives intended to educate and empower consumers to make better informed financial decisions. The Bureau seeks to obtain approval of a generic clearance to collect qualitative data on effective strategies and consumer experiences from both financial education practitioners and consumers through a variety of methods, including in-person meetings, interviews, focus groups, qualitative surveys, online discussion forums, social media polls, and other qualitative methods as necessary. The information collected through these processes will increase the Bureau’s understanding of consumers’ financial experiences, financial education and empowerment programs, and practices that can improve financial decision-making skills and outcomes for consumers.

Request For Comments: The Bureau issued a 60-day Federal Register notice on January 15, 2013, 78 FR 2961. Comments were solicited and continue to be invited on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Bureau, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) The accuracy of the Bureau’s estimate of the burden of the collection of information, including the validity of the methods and the assumptions used; (c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and/or included in the request for Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approval. All comments will become a matter of public record.

Dated: April 1, 2013.

Darrin A. King,

Paperwork Reduction Act Officer, Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection.
