BILLING CODE 4160-01-P

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIORNational Indian Gaming Commission*25 CFR Parts 581, 584, and 585*RIN 3141-AA47*Appeal Proceedings Before the Commission

AGENCY: National Indian Gaming Commission, Interior.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC or Commission) is revising its appeals regulations to include, amongst the appealable actions, the Chair's decisions to approve or object to a tribal gaming regulatory authority's adoption of alternate standards from those required by the Commission's minimum internal control standards and/or technical standards.

DATES: The effective date of these regulations is May 9, 2013.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Armando Acosta, National Indian Gaming Commission, 1441 L Street NW., Suite 9100, Washington, DC 20005. Email: armando_acosta@nigc.gov; telephone: (202) 632-7003.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (IGRA or Act), Public Law 100-497, 25 U.S.C. 2701 et seq., was signed into law on October 17, 1988. The Act established the Commission and set out a comprehensive framework for the regulation of gaming on Indian lands. The Act requires that the Commission, by regulation, provide an opportunity for an appeal and a hearing before the Commission on fines levied by the Chair against the tribal operator of an Indian game or a management contractor, and to determine whether a temporary closure order issued by the Chair should be made permanent or dissolved. 25 U.S.C. 2713(a)(2), 2713(b). By regulation, the Commission has also provided rights to tribes and/or management contractors to appeal ordinance disapprovals, management contract approvals or disapprovals, enforcement actions, and actions to void an approved management contract. The appellate procedures for these actions are all consolidated in this subchapter.

II. Previous Rulemaking Activity

On September 21, 2012, the Commission published two final rules amending 25 CFR parts 543 and 547. In its final rule for part 543, the Commission provided tribal gaming regulatory authorities (TGRA) with rights to appeal the Chair's decisions to approve or object to a TGRA's adoption of alternate standards from those required by the Commission's minimum internal control standards contained in part 543 (77 FR 58708, Sept. 21, 2012). In its final rule for part 547, the Commission provided TGRAs with rights to appeal the Chair's decisions to approve or object to a TGRA's adoption of alternate standards from those required by the Commission's technical standards contained in part 547 (77 FR 58473, Sept. 21, 2012).

On September 25, 2012, the Commission published a final rule consolidating all appeal proceedings before the Commission into the current subchapter H (Appeal Proceedings

Before the Commission). 77 FR 58941, Sept. 25, 2012. However, the new appeal rights provided under parts 543 and 547 were not included in subchapter H at that time. On January 22, 2013, the Commission published a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking proposing to revise subchapter H to include the new appeal rights provided to TGRAs under parts 543 and 547 (78 FR 4366, Jan. 22, 2013).

III. Review of Public Comments

In response to its Notice of Proposed Rulemaking published on January 22, 2013, the Commission received the following comments:

General Comments Applicable to the Entire Subchapter

Comment: One commenter applauded the revisions to the subchapter and stated that these long-term, permanent changes reflect the importance of tribal sovereignty rights and the true partnership between the federal government and tribal nations.

Response: The Commission agrees.

584.2 Who may appeal? and 585.2 Who may appeal?

Comment: One commenter was concerned that the proposed revisions limit appeals rights to TGRAs only. While the commenter recognizes that TGRAs are the parties most directly affected by the Chair's decisions to approve or object to a TGRA's adoption of alternate standards from those required by the Commission's minimum internal control standards and/or technical standards, the commenter suggests that the rule be revised to also permit tribal governments to bring appeals on behalf of TGRAs. The commenter provided multiple reasons for the suggested revision, including that some TGRAs lack independent litigation authority and thus may not be able to proceed with an appeal independent of the tribe; or that some TGRAs do not have the funding to proceed with an appeal without the financial assistance of the tribal government, and thus, for accounting purposes, the appeal would have to be brought in the name of the tribe rather than the TGRA.

Response: The Commission declines to revise the rule as suggested by the commenter. While the Commission has taken into consideration the circumstances that some TGRAs may lack independent litigation authority and/or that some TGRAs do not have the funding to proceed with an appeal without the financial assistance of a tribal government, the Commission believes that such circumstances are internal tribal matters that must be resolved between the TGRAs and their tribal governments before the appeals reach the Commission. As noted by the commenter, the TGRAs are the parties most affected by the Chair's decisions to approve or object to the TGRAs' adoption of alternate standards from those required by the Commission's minimum internal control standards and/or technical standards. If an appeal is successful, only a TGRA can implement the alternate standards in a gaming facility. Therefore, the Commission believes that only the TGRAs should be allowed to bring an appeal.

Regulatory Matters

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The rule will not have a significant impact on a substantial number of small entities as defined under the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq. Moreover, Indian tribes are not considered to be small entities for the purposes of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act

The rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804(2), the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act. The rule does not have an effect on the economy of $100 million or more. The rule will not cause a major increase in costs or prices for consumers, individual industries, Federal, State, local government agencies or geographic regions. Nor will the rule have a significant adverse effect on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or the ability of the enterprises, to compete with foreign based enterprises.

Unfunded Mandate Reform Act

The Commission, as an independent regulatory agency, is exempt from compliance with the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act, 2 U.S.C. 1502(1); 2 U.S.C. 658(1).

Takings

In accordance with Executive Order 12630, the Commission has determined that the rule does not have significant takings implications. A takings implication assessment is not required.

Civil Justice Reform

In accordance with Executive Order 12988, the Commission has determined that the rule does not unduly burden the judicial system and meets the requirements of sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of the Order.

National Environmental Policy Act

The Commission has determined that the rule does not constitute a major federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and that no detailed statement is required pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, 42 U.S.C. 4321, et seq.

Paperwork Reduction Act

This proposed rule does not require information collection under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq., and is therefore not subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget.

List of Subjects in 25 CFR Parts 581, 584, and 585
