

access to authorized personnel only and has safeguards in place to alert security personnel if unauthorized personnel attempt to gain access to OPM's environment. OPM employs armed physical security guards 365 days a year, 24 hours a day that patrol OPM headquarters, to include entry and exit points. Computer firewalls are maintained to prevent access by unauthorized personnel. The HCDW employs National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Physical and Environmental Security Controls identified in Special Publication SP 800-53 revision 3. The HCDW will perform a Security Assessment and Authorization (SA&A) following the NIST 800-53 rev 3 standard in order to obtain an Authority to Operate (ATO). Users within the Office of Planning and Policy Analysis (PPA) use the system to perform cost and quality analysis for health care plans. Two sub-groups of PPA users have been identified in the system, those who are permitted to view PII and those who are not. HCDW employs role based access controls (RBAC) to further restrict access to data contained within HCDW based on users' roles. The data warehouse is fully compliant with all applicable provisions of the Privacy Act, Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) as an oversight agency, Federal Information Security Management Act (FISMA), Records Act and National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) guidance.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Proposed Collection; Comment Request

Upon Written Request, Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Investor Education and Advocacy, Washington, DC 20549-0213.

Extension: Rule 15c3-1; SEC File No. 270-197, OMB Control No. 3235-0200.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) ("PRA"), the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") is soliciting comments on the existing collection of information provided for in Rule 15c3-1 (17 CFR 240.15c3-1), under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.). The Commission plans to submit this existing collection of information to the Office of Management and Budget ("OMB") for extension and approval.

Rule 15c3-1 requires brokers-dealers to have at all times sufficient liquid assets to meet their current liabilities, particularly the claims of customers. The rule facilitates the monitoring of the financial condition of broker-dealers by the Commission and the various self-regulatory organizations. It is estimated that broker-dealer respondents registered with the Commission and subject to the collection of information requirements of Rule 15c3-1 incur an aggregate annual time burden of 71,818 hours to comply with this rule and an aggregate annual external cost of $160,000.

Written comments are invited on: (a) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the Commission's estimates of the burden of the proposed collection of information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Consideration will be given to comments and suggestions submitted in writing within 60 days of this publication.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Please direct your written comments to: Thomas Bayer, Director/Chief Information Officer, Securities and Exchange Commission, c/o Remi Pavlik-Simon, 6432 General Green Way, Alexandria, Virginia 22312 or send an email to: PRA_Mailbox@sec.gov.

Dated: April 15, 2013.

Applicants’ Representations

1. Each Applicant is either a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc (“RBSG”). RBSG and RBS plc, a company organized under the laws of Scotland, are international banking and financial services companies that provide a wide range of products and services to companies around the world. Citizens IA, an investment adviser registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, is a separately identifiable department of RBS Citizens, N.A. Citizens IA serves as investment sub-adviser to Aquila Narragansett Tax-Free Income Fund (the “Fund”) (such activity, “Fund Service Activities”). The Settling Firm, a company with its principal place of business in Tokyo, Japan, engages in securities business operations, including derivatives trading.

2. On April 12, 2013, the Fraud Section of the Criminal Division and the Antitrust Division of the DOJ filed a one-count criminal information (the “Information”) in the District Court charging one count of wire fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343. The Information charges that between approximately 2006 and at least 2010, the Settling Firm engaged in a scheme to defraud counterparties to interest rate derivatives trades executed on its behalf by secretly manipulating benchmark interest rates to which the profitability of those trades was tied. The Information charges that, in furtherance of this scheme, on or about October 5, 2009, the Settling Firm committed wire fraud in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343 by transmitting, or causing the transmission of, (i) An electronic chat between a derivatives trader employed by the Settling Firm and an RBS plc derivatives trader, (ii) a subsequent submission for the London InterBank Offered Rate for Japanese Yen (“Yen LIBOR”) to Thomson Reuters, and (iii) a subsequent publication of a Yen LIBOR rate through international and interstate wires.

3. Pursuant to a plea agreement (the “Plea Agreement”), attached as exhibit to the application, the Settling Firm entered a plea of guilty (the “Guilty Plea”) on April 12, 2013, in the District Court. In the Plea Agreement, the Settling Firm, among other things, agreed to a fine of $50 million. Applicants expect that the District Court will enter a judgment against the Settling Firm that will require remedies that are materially the same as set forth in the Plea Agreement. In addition, RBS plc entered into a deferred prosecution agreement with DOJ (the “Deferred Prosecution Agreement”) relating to submissions of the Yen LIBOR and other benchmark interest rates. In the Deferred Prosecution Agreement, RBS plc has agreed to, among other things, (i) Continue to provide full cooperation with DOJ and any other law enforcement or government agency designated by DOJ until the conclusion of all investigations and prosecutions arising out of the conduct described in the Deferred Prosecution Agreement; (ii) strengthen its internal controls as required by certain other U.S. and non-U.S. regulatory agencies that have addressed the misconduct described in the Deferred Prosecution Agreement; and (iii) the payment of $150 million, which includes amounts incurred by the Settling Firm for criminal penalties arising from the Judgment. The individuals at the Settling Firm and at any other Covered Person who were identified by the Settling Firm, RBS plc or any U.S. or non-U.S. regulatory or enforcement agencies as being responsible for the conduct underlying the Plea Agreement, including the conduct described in any of the exhibits
