

Commission}],” and found those to be non-dispositive as well.¹⁰ The Department thus reincorporated its earlier analysis under 19 CFR 351.225(k)(2) to conclude that SSPC with a nominal thickness greater than or equal to 4.75 mm regardless of the actual thickness is included within the scope of the AD and CVD Orders.¹¹

On July 12, 2011, the CIT sustained the Department’s First Remand Redetermination.¹² AMS Belgium appealed the CIT’s final judgment to the CAFC.

On September 7, 2012, the CAFC reversed the CIT’s judgment. The CAFC concluded that substantial evidence did not support the Department’s determination that the language of the SSPC orders is ambiguous and held that “the plain meaning of the orders regarding the 4.75 mm thickness is a reference to actual thickness of products subject to the orders.”¹³

On January 4, 2013, the CIT issued a remand order directing the Department to take action in accordance with the CAFC’s decision in ArcelorMittal and to find that SSPC with an actual thickness of less than 4.75 mm is outside the scope of the AD and CVD Orders.¹⁴ Pursuant to that order, the Department construed the scope of the AD and CVD Orders so that SSPC from Belgium with an actual thickness of less than 4.75 mm is not subject to the AD and CVD Orders on SSPC, regardless of its nominal thickness.¹⁵ The CIT sustained the Department’s remand redetermination on March 26, 2013.¹⁶

Timken Notice

In its decision in Timken, 893 F.2d at 341, as clarified by Diamond Sawblades, the CAFC has held that, pursuant to section 516A(e) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), the Department must publish a notice of a court decision that is not “in harmony” with a Department determination and must suspend liquidation of entries pending a “conclusive” court decision. The CAFC’s September 7, 2012, judgment in ArcelorMittal constitutes a final decision of that court that is not in harmony with the Department’s Final Scope Ruling. This notice is published in fulfillment of the publication requirements of Timken.

Amended Final Scope Ruling

Because there is now a final court decision with respect to SSPC with an actual thickness of less than 4.75 mm, the Department amends its Final Scope Ruling and now finds that the scope of the AD and CVD Orders excludes SSPC with an actual thickness of less than 4.75 mm, regardless of its nominal thickness. Accordingly, the Department will issue revised instructions to U.S. Customs and Border Protection.

This notice is issued and published in accordance with section 516A(c)(1) of the Act.

Certain Frozen Warmwater Shrimp from Brazil: Notice of Rescission of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review; 2012–2013

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Kate Johnson or Rebecca Trainor, AD/CVD Operations, Office 2, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-4929 or (202) 482-4007, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On February 1, 2013, the Department of Commerce (the Department) published in the Federal Register a notice of “Opportunity to Request Administrative Review” of the antidumping duty order on certain frozen warmwater shrimp from Brazil for the period of review (POR) of February 1, 2012, through January 31, 2013.¹ The Department received a timely request from the Ad Hoc Shrimp Trade Action Committee (Domestic Producers) in accordance with 19 CFR

351.213(b), for an administrative review of the antidumping duty order on certain frozen warmwater shrimp from Brazil. On March 29, 2013, the Department published a notice of initiation of an administrative review of the antidumping duty order on certain frozen warmwater shrimp from Brazil with respect to two companies.²

The Department stated in its initiation of this review that it intended to rely on U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) data to select respondents.³ However, our review of the CBP database, with respect to the companies for which this review was requested, showed no entries of subject merchandise during the POR.⁴ We released the results of our CBP data query to the Domestic Producers, the only interested party to this segment of the proceeding, and invited them to comment on the CBP data. We received no comments on the CBP data.

On April 4, 2013, we sent a “No Shipments Inquiry” to CBP to confirm that there were no shipments or entries of subject merchandise during the POR from the companies subject to review. We received no information from CBP to contradict the results of our data query.

On April 29, 2013, we stated that because information from CBP indicates that there were no entries of subject merchandise during the POR from the companies covered by this review, we intend to rescind this review.⁵ We invited parties to comment on our intent to rescind this administrative review. We did not receive comments from any interested party.

Rescission of Review

Section 351.213(d)(3) of the Department’s regulations stipulates that the Secretary may rescind an administrative review if there were no entries, exports, or sales of the subject merchandise during the POR. As there were no entries, exports, or sales of the subject merchandise during the POR, we are rescinding this review of the antidumping duty order on certain frozen warmwater shrimp from Brazil pursuant to 19 CFR 351.213(d)(3). We intend to issue assessment instructions to CBP 15 days after the date of publication of this notice of rescission of administrative review.
