§ 1000.4 Functions.
(a) The Board provides advice and counsel to the President and executive departments and agencies to ensure that privacy and civil liberties are appropriately considered in proposed legislation, regulations, and policies, and in the implementation of new and existing legislation, regulations, and policies, related to efforts to protect the Nation from terrorism;
(b) The Board oversees actions by the executive branch relating to efforts to protect the Nation from terrorism to determine whether such actions appropriately protect privacy and civil liberties and are consistent with governing laws, regulations, and policies regarding privacy and civil liberties; and
(c) The Board receives and reviews reports and other information from privacy and civil liberties officers under 42 U.S.C. 2000ee-1 and, when appropriate, makes recommendations to and coordinates the activities of privacy and civil liberties officers on relevant interagency matters.

§ 1000.3 Delegations of authority.
(a) The Board. The Board is the head of the agency. The Board is responsible for the overall planning, direction, and control of the agency’s agenda. The delegations of authority in this part do not extend to the following actions which are reserved to the Board:
(1) Disposition of all rulemaking and similar proceedings involving the promulgation of rules or the issuance of statements of general policy;
(2) Determination of advice or recommendations to the President or executive departments and agencies regarding the matters described in 42 U.S.C. 2000ee(d);
(3) Determination of the Board’s annual agenda or other statement of operational priorities; and
(4) Delegation to one or more Board members or staff of those responsibilities delegated to the Chairman in § 1000.3(b), in the event of a vacancy.
(5) Any authority that is not delegated by the Board in this part, or otherwise vested in officials other than the Board, is reserved to the Board. Except as otherwise provided, the Board may exercise powers and duties delegated or assigned to individuals other than the Board.
(b) The Chairman. The Chairman is the executive and administrative head of the Board. The Chairman has the authority, duties, and responsibilities assigned to the Chairman under 42 U.S.C. 2000ee(b)(4) and (j)(1) and is responsible for the agency’s day-to-day operations. The Chairman is delegated the authority to:
(1) Exercise control over the Board’s management and functioning;
(2) Implement and execute the Board’s budget;
(3) Develop and effectively use staff support to carry out the functions of the Board, including, but not limited to, the supervision and removal of Board employees and the assignment and distribution of work among staff;
(4) Convene and preside at all meetings of the Board and ensure that every vote and official act of the Board required by law to be recorded is accurately and promptly recorded by the General Counsel;
(5) Act as the Board’s spokesman on all matters where an official expression of the Board is required, or as otherwise directed by the Board;
(6) Approve for publication all publicly issued documents, except:
(i) Those authorized by an individual Board Member;
(ii) Decisions or informal opinions of the Board; and
(iii) The semi-annual report required to be published by the Board under 42 U.S.C. 2000ee(e).
(7) Serve as the Board’s Chief FOIA Officer under 5 U.S.C. 552(j).
(8) Serves as the Board’s Equal Employment Opportunity Director, as described in 29 CFR Part 1614.
(9) Redelegate to one or more Board staff persons those responsibilities delegated to the Executive Director or General Counsel under this part, in the event that the other position is unfilled.
(10) Authorize any officer, employee, or administrative unit of the Board to perform a function vested in, delegated, or otherwise designated to the Chairman.
(c) Executive Director. The Executive Director manages the staff and assists the Chairman with the day-to-day operation of the Board. The Executive Director is delegated authority to:
(1) Formulate and implement plans and policies designed to assure the effective administration of the Board’s operations and the efficient operations of the staff;
(2) Serve as the Board’s Senior Agency Official for Privacy;
(3) Administer the Board’s programs under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, and the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a.; and
(4) Authorize any officer or employee of the Board to perform a function vested in, delegated, or otherwise designated to the Executive Director.
(d) General Counsel. The General Counsel is the Board’s chief legal officer, and serves as legal advisor to the Board. The General Counsel is delegated authority to:
(1) Serve as the Board’s Designated Ethics Official in accordance with 5 CFR 2638.202;
(2) Certify Board votes consistent with Board policies and procedures; and
(3) Authorize any officer or employee of the Board to perform a function vested in, delegated, or otherwise designated to the General Counsel.
(e) Individual Board Members. Any member delegated authority vested in the Chairman under paragraph (a) of this section may redelegate that authority to one or more Board employees.
(f) Exercise of authority. In carrying out any functions delegated under this part, members and staff are governed in the exercise of those functions by all applicable Federal statutes and regulations, and by the regulations, orders, and rules of the Board.

Distribution of Source Material to Exempt Persons and to General Licensees and Revision of General License and Exemptions

AGENCY: Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Interim staff guidance; issuance.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) is issuing interim staff guidance for implementation of the final rule, Distribution of Source Material to Exempt Persons and to General Licensees and Revision of General License and Exemptions (Distribution of Source Material Rule). The Distribution of Source Material Rule amended the NRC’s regulations to require that the initial distribution of source material to exempt persons or to general licensees be explicitly authorized by a specific license. The Distribution of Source Material Rule also modified the existing possession and use requirements of the general license for small quantities of source material and revised, clarified, or deleted certain source material exemptions from licensing.

DATES: This interim staff guidance is effective August 27, 2013.

ADDRESSES: Please refer to Docket ID NRC–2011–0003 when contacting the NRC about the availability of information regarding this document. You may access information related to this document, which the NRC possesses and is publicly available using the following methods:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Discussion

The NRC’s Distribution of Source Material Rule (78 FR 32310; May 29, 2013) amended the NRC’s regulations in parts 30, 40, 70, 170, and 171 of Title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations (10 CFR) to require that the initial distribution of source material to exempt persons or general licensees be explicitly authorized by a specific license. The Distribution of Source Material Rule also included new reporting requirements. The rule will affect manufacturers and distributors of certain products and materials containing source material and certain persons using source material under general license and under exemptions from licensing. The Distribution of Source Material Rule goes into effect on August 27, 2013.

In conjunction with the Distribution of Source Material Rule, the NRC has developed interim staff guidance, which provides guidance to a licensee or applicant for implementation of the amended regulations. It is intended for use by applicants, licensees, Agreement States, and the NRC staff. On January 7, 2011, the NRC published the draft
