with cross references to appropriate consensus standards:

— Amend the 29 CFR 1926.250(a)(2) requirement to post maximum safe-load limit for buildings under construction to exempt single family dwellings;

— Update the Definition of “Potable water” in 29 CFR 1926.51(a)(6) with the newer language found in the general industry standard at 29 CFR 1910.141(a)(2);

— Clarify the rules that a physician or other licensed health care professional must use to make a determination that a hearing-loss case is not work-related under 29 CFR 1904.10(b)(6);

— Remove requirements for chest x-rays in certain health standards, such as cadmium and inorganic arsenic, that affect construction employees; and — Revisions to the x-ray requirements in the Asbestos standard at 29 CFR 1926.1101.

Public participation, Submissions, and Access to Public Record

ACCSH meetings: All ACCSH meetings are open to the public. Individuals attending meetings at the U.S. Department of Labor must enter the building at the visitors’ entrance, 3rd and C Streets NW., and pass through building security. Attendees must have valid government-issued photo identification (such as a driver’s license) to enter the building. For additional information about building security measures for attending ACCSH meetings, please contact Ms. Owens see ADDRESSES section.

Individuals needing special accommodations to attend the ACCSH meeting should contact Ms. Owens as well.

Submission of written comments: You may submit comments using one of the methods identified in the ADDRESSES section. Your submissions must include the Agency name and docket number for this ACCSH meeting (Docket No. OSHA–2013–0006). OSHA will provide copies of submissions to ACCSH members.

Because of security-related procedures, submissions by regular mail may experience significant delays. For information about security procedures for submitting materials by hand delivery, express mail, and messenger or courier service, please contact the OSHA Docket Office (see ADDRESSES section).

Requests to speak and speaker presentations: If you want to address ACCSH at the meeting you must submit your request to speak, as well as any written or electronic presentation, by August 15, 2013, using one of the methods listed in the ADDRESSES section. Your request must state:

- The amount of time requested to speak;
- The interest you represent (e.g., business, organization, affiliation), if any; and
- A brief outline of your presentation. PowerPoint presentations and other electronic materials must be compatible with PowerPoint 2010 and other Microsoft Office 2010 formats.

The ACCSH Chair may grant requests to address ACCSH as time and circumstances permit.

Public docket of the ACCSH meeting: OSHA will place comments, requests to speak, and speaker presentations, including any personal information you provide, in the public docket of this ACCSH meeting without change, and those documents may be available online at http://www.regulations.gov. Therefore, OSHA cautions you about submitting personal information such as Social Security numbers and birthdates.

OSHA also places in the public docket the meeting transcript, meeting minutes, documents presented at the ACCSH meeting, and other documents pertaining to the ACCSH meeting. These documents are available online at http://www.regulations.gov.

Access to the public record of ACCSH meetings: To read or download documents in the public docket of this ACCSH meeting, go to Docket No. OSHA–2013–0006 at http://www.regulations.gov. The http://www.regulations.gov index also lists all documents in the public record for this meeting; however, some documents (e.g., copyrighted materials) are not publicly available through that Web page. All documents in the public record, including materials not available through http://www.regulations.gov, are available for inspection and copying in the OSHA Docket Office (see ADDRESSES section). Please contact the OSHA Docket Office for assistance in making submissions to, or obtaining materials from, the public docket.

Electronic copies of this Federal Register notice are available at http://www.regulations.gov. This notice, as well as news releases and other relevant information, also are available on the OSHA Web page at http://www.osha.gov.
