AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice; correction.

SUMMARY: The Anthropological Studies Center, Sonoma State University, has corrected an inventory of human remains and associated funerary objects, published in a Notice of Inventory Completion in the Federal Register on June 21, 2007. This notice corrects the minimum number of individuals and the number of associated funerary objects from site CA–MRN–27. Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to request transfer of control of these human remains and associated funerary objects should submit a written request to the Anthropological Studies Center, Sonoma State University. If no additional requestors come forward, transfer of control of the human remains and associated funerary objects to the lineal descendants, Indian tribes, or Native Hawaiian organizations stated in this notice may proceed.

DATES: Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to request transfer of control of these human remains and associated funerary objects should submit a written request with information in support of the request to Sandra Massey, NAGPRA Coordinator, Anthropological Studies Center, Archaeological Collections Facility, Sonoma State University, 1801 East Cotati Ave., Building 29, Rohnert Park, CA, 94928, telephone (707) 664–2381, email massey@sonoma.edu.

ADDITIONAL REQUESTORS AND DISPOSITION

In the Federal Register (Vol 72 FR 34275–34276, June 21, 2007), paragraph seven, sentence six is corrected by substituting the following sentences:

In 1967, human remains representing a minimum of 104 individuals were removed from the Reedland Woods site (CA–MRN–27), Tiburon, Marin County, CA, during an excavation under the direction of Dr. Frederickson (accession number 67–01). Additional human remains and associated funerary objects from this site were reburied in 1992 at Ya–Ka–Ama Indian Educational Center in Forestville, CA.

This notice corrects the minimum number of individuals and the number of associated funerary objects published in a Notice of Inventory Completion in the Federal Register (72 FR 34275–34276, June 21, 2007). Re-inventory of the collection discovered fewer individuals and more associated funerary objects from site CA–MRN–27. Transfer of control of the items in this correction notice has not occurred.

Correction

In the Federal Register (72 FR 34275–34276, June 21, 2007), paragraph seven, sentence one is corrected by substituting the following sentences:

The 6,640 associated funerary objects are 33 bone tools; 2 bone beads; 8 bone pendants; 1 bone pendant or net gauge; 32 bone tubes; 1 bone tube/whistle; 8 bone whistles; 19 pieces modified bone of indefinite use; 4 antler tools; 7 charomstones; 2 quartz crystals; 6 pieces miscellaneous groundstone; 7 pestles; 1 mortar; 53 obsidian tools; 12 worked/utilized obsidian flakes; 12 pieces otherwise worked obsidian; 5 chert tools; 3 chert utilized/worked flakes; 5 pieces otherwise worked chert; 7 pieces worked miscellaneous lithics; 3 pieces micaeous schist; 1 steatite ring; 1 steatite cone; 2 steatite pendants; 5 steatite beads; 4 pieces unworked steatite; 13 Haliotis (abalone) shell ornaments; 27 Halioitid beads; 20 Halioitid pendants; 669 Olivella shell beads; 113 miscellaneous shell beads; 4 pieces perforated Macoma (saltwater clam) shell; 7 pieces ochre; 193 pieces miscellaneous lithic debitage; 154 pieces baked clay; 35 clay shell casts; 1 charcoal sample; 4,328 pieces unmodified faunal bone; 422 pieces unmodified shell; 426 pieces miscellaneous unmodified lithic materials; and 2 soil samples.

In the Federal Register (Vol 72 FR 34275–34276, June 21, 2007), paragraph 19, sentences one and two are corrected by substituting the following sentences:

Officials of the Archaeological Collections Facility, Sonoma State University determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (9–10), the human remains described above represent the physical remains of 156 individuals of Native American ancestry. Officials of the Archaeological Collections Facility, Sonoma State University also have determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (3)[A], the 6,640 objects described above are reasonably believed to have been placed with or near individual human remains at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony.

ADDITIONAL REQUESTORS AND DISPOSITION

Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to request transfer of control of these human remains and associated funerary objects should submit a written request with information in support of the request to Sandra Massey, NAGPRA Coordinator, Anthropological Studies Center, Archaeological Collections Facility, Sonoma State University, 1801 East Cotati Ave., Building 29, Rohnert Park, CA, 94928, telephone (707) 664–2381, email massey@sonoma.edu, by September 16, 2013. After that date, if no additional requestors have come forward, transfer of control of the human remains and associated funerary objects to Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, California, may proceed.

The Anthropological Studies Center, Sonoma State University, is responsible for notifying the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, California, that this notice has been published.

Dated: July 24, 2013.

This notice corrects the minimum number of individuals and number of associated funerary objects. Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to request transfer of control of these human remains and associated funerary objects should submit a written request to San Juan Island National Historical Park. If no additional requestors come forward, transfer of control of the human remains and associated funerary objects to the lineal descendants, Indian tribes, or Native Hawaiian organizations stated in this notice may proceed.

DATES: Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to request transfer of control of these human remains and associated funerary objects should submit a written request with information in support of the request to San Juan Island National Historical Park at the address in this notice by September 16, 2013.

ADDRESSES: Lee Taylor, Superintendent, San Juan Island National Historical Park, P.O. Box 429, Friday Harbor, WA 98250, telephone (360) 378–2240, email lee_taylor@nps.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Notice is here given in accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), 25 U.S.C. 3003, of the correction of an inventory of human remains and associated funerary objects under the control of the U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service, San Juan Island National Historical Park, Friday Harbor, WA, and in the physical custody of the Thomas Burke Memorial Washington State Museum (Burke Museum), University of Washington, Seattle, WA. The human remains and associated funerary objects were removed from three prehistoric archeological sites within the boundaries of San Juan Island National Historical Park, San Juan County, WA.

This notice is published as part of the National Park Service’s administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA, 25 U.S.C. 3003(d)(9). The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of the Superintendent, San Juan Island National Historical Park.

This notice corrects the minimum number of individuals and number of associated funerary objects published in a corrected Notice of Inventory Completion in the Federal Register (74 FR 10766–10767, March 12, 2009). During a review of faunal material in Burke Museum collections, additional human remains representing 12 individuals and 9 associated funerary objects were found. Transfer of control of the items in this correction notice has not occurred.

Correction

In the Federal Register (74 FR 10766–10767, March 12, 2009), paragraph five, sentence one is corrected by substituting the following sentence:

In 1946 and 1947, human remains representing a minimum of eight individuals were removed from the Cattle Point Site (45–SJ–01) on San Juan Island in San Juan County, WA, during legally authorized excavations by Professor Carroll Burroughs of the University of Washington.

Correction

In the Federal Register (74 FR 10766–10767, March 12, 2009), paragraph nine is corrected by substituting the following paragraph:

In 1970, 1971, and 1972, human remains representing a minimum of 36 individuals were removed from the English Camp Site (45–SJ–01) on San Juan Island in San Juan County, WA, during University of Idaho field schools directed by Dr. Roderick Sprague. The human remains and associated funerary objects were transferred to the Burke Museum and accessioned by the National Park Service. No known individuals were identified. The 36 associated funerary objects are 35 human bone fragments and 1 wood fragment.

Correction

In the Federal Register (74 FR 10766–10767, March 12, 2009), paragraph ten is corrected by substituting the following paragraph:

Between 1984 and 1990, human remains representing a minimum of 14 individuals were removed from the English Camp Site in San Juan County, WA, during legally authorized excavations by Professor Julie Stein of the University of Washington. The human remains and associated funerary objects were transferred to the Burke Museum and accessioned by the National Park Service. No known individuals were identified. The 14 associated funerary objects are 13 human bone fragments, 1 miniature bone club, and 3 bags of non-human bone.

Additional Requestors and Disposition

Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to request transfer of control of these human remains and associated funerary objects should submit a written request with information in support of the request to Lee Taylor, Superintendent, San Juan Island National Historical Park, P.O. Box 429, Friday Harbor, WA 98250, telephone (360) 378–2240, email lee_taylor@nps.gov, by September 16, 2013. After that date, if no additional requestors have come forward, transfer of control of the human remains and associated funerary objects to the Lummi Tribe of the Lummi Reservation may proceed.

San Juan Island National Historical Park is responsible for notifying the Lummi Tribe of the Lummi Reservation; Samish Indian Nation (previously listed as the Samish Indian Tribe, Washington); and Swinomish Indians of the Swinomish Reservation of Washington that this notice has been published.
