Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Park System Resource Protection Act

On August 15, 2013, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed Consent Decree with the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota in the lawsuit entitled United States v. Thomas Lombard and Catherine Lombard, Civil Action No. 13-cv-02214 (PJS/SER).

The United States of America, on behalf of the United States Department of the Interior, National Park Service ("NPS"), filed a claim against Defendants Thomas Lombard and Catherine Lombard ("Defendants") to recover park system resource damages, assessment costs, and response costs pursuant to the Park System Resource Protection Act, 16 U.S.C. 19j et seq., for destruction of, loss of, or injury to park system resources of the Saint Croix National Scenic Riverway (hereafter "Riverway") in Minnesota resulting from the Defendants' unauthorized cutting of trees on NPS land in the Riverway. Under the proposed Consent Decree, Defendants' will pay a penalty of $20,000 for park system resource damages, assessment costs, and response costs as alleged in the Complaint. Additionally, the proposed Consent Decree requires the Defendants' to provide NPS access to Defendants' property to plant, water, and monitor replacement trees, and conduct other appropriate activities. Defendants will also supply water and equipment to water the trees.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and should refer to United States v. Thomas Lombard and Catherine Lombard, D.J. Ref. [Docket No. 11-48]

Kevin Dennis, M.D., Decision and Order

On April 12, 2011, the Deputy Assistant Administrator, Office of Diversion Control, issued an Order to Show Cause to Kevin Dennis, M.D. (hereinafter, Respondent), of Franklin, Tennessee. The Show Cause Order proposed the revocation of Respondent’s DEA Certification of Registration and the denial of his application to renew his registration on the ground that his “continued registration is inconsistent with the public interest.” ALJ Ex. 1, at 1 (citing 21 U.S.C. 823(f)).

More specifically, the Show Cause Order alleged that from September 2007 through July 2009, Respondent “prescribed controlled substances to individuals located in Colorado, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee via the Internet based on online questionnaires, submissions of unverified medical records, and/or telephone consultations without a medical examination.” Id. The Show Cause Order alleged that Respondent “failed to establish a valid physician-patient relationship” as required by various state laws and that in issuing the prescriptions Respondent
