

intervening term appointment, and without a break in service of one day; and

(xvi) Employment with the District of Columbia Government after January 1, 1980 (the date the District implemented an independent merit personnel system not tied to the Federal system), provided the person was a District employee on December 31, 1979, was converted to the District system on January 1, 1980, and is employed by nontemporary appointment in the competitive service.

(2) Competitive status. An individual may attain career tenure only when employed (or reemployed) in a permanent appointment in the competitive service that provides or leads to competitive status.

(3) Crediting service. An employee's creditable service must total at least 3 years, under the following conditions:

(i) Work schedule. (A) Full-time service, and part-time service on or after July 1, 1962, are counted as calendar time from the date of appointment to date of separation.

(B) Intermittent service on or after July 1, 1962, is counted as 1 day for each day an employee is in pay status, regardless of the number of hours for which the employee is actually paid on a given day. Agencies should consult the "260-Day Work Year Chart" in OPM's Guide to Processing Personnel Actions to convert intermittent days worked to calendar time. The service requirement may not be satisfied in less than 3 years of calendar time.

(ii) Nonpay status on the rolls and time off the rolls. An agency may not credit periods of nonpay status and time off the rolls except as follows:

(A) Credit the first 30 calendar days of each period of nonpay status on the rolls during full-time employment, or during part-time employment on or after July 1, 1962. On this same basis, a seasonal employee receives credit for the first 30 calendar days of each period of nonduty/nonpay status. Nonpay status in excess of 30 days is not creditable.

(B) Credit periods of nonpay status and time off the rolls incident to entry into and return from military service and return from defense transfer, provided the person is reemployed in Federal service during the period of his or her statutory or regulatory restoration or reemployment rights.

(C) Credit periods of nonpay status and time off the rolls incident to transfer to and return from an international organization, provided the person is reemployed in Federal service under subpart C of part 352 of this chapter.

(D) Credit periods of nonpay status during which an employee was eligible to receive continuation of pay or injury compensation from the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs. Also credit periods of time off the rolls during which an employee was eligible to receive injury compensation from the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, provided the person is reemployed under part 353 of this chapter.

(E) Credit up to 30 calendar days for time off the rolls that follows separation by reduction in force of employees who are eligible for entry on the reemployment priority list under subpart B of part 330 of this chapter, provided the person is reemployed in Federal service during the period of his or her reemployment priority.

(F) Credit up to 30 calendar days for time off the rolls that follow involuntary separation without personal cause of employees who are eligible for a noncompetitive appointment based on an interchange agreement with another merit system under § 6.7 of this chapter, provided the person is employed in the competitive service under the agreement during the period of his or her eligibility.

(G) Credit periods of nonpay status incident to an assignment to a State, local, or Indian tribal government, institution of higher education, or other eligible organization provided the employee returns to a creditable appointment pursuant to an agreement established under subchapter VI of chapter 33, title 5, U.S.C., and part 334 of this chapter.

(iii) Restoration based on unwarranted or improper actions. Based on a finding made on or after March 30, 1966, that a furlough, suspension, or separation was unwarranted or improper, an employee restored to duty receives full calendar time credit for the period of furlough, suspension, or separation for which he or she is eligible to receive back pay. If the employee is restored to duty at a date later than the original adverse action, credit for intervening periods of nonpay status is given in accordance with other provisions of this subsection. If the employee had been properly separated from the rolls of the agency before a finding was made that the adverse action was unwarranted or improper, the correction and additional service credit given the employee may not extend beyond the date of the proper separation.

(iv) Intervening service. Certain types of service that ordinarily are not creditable are counted when they intervene between two periods of creditable service. Under these conditions, credit each period of service:

(A) In the excepted service of the Federal executive branch, including employment in nonappropriated fund positions in or under any Federal agency;

(B) Under temporary, term, or other nonpermanent employment in the Federal competitive service;

(C) In the Senior Executive Service;

(D) In the Federal legislative branch;

(E) In the Federal judicial branch;

(F) In the armed forces;

(G) In the District of Columbia Government through December 31, 1979. For an employee on the District rolls on December 31, 1979, who converted on January 1, 1980, to the District independent personnel system, credit also is given for service between January 1, 1980, and September 25, 1980. Otherwise, service in the District of Columbia Government on or after January 1, 1980, is not creditable as intervening service; and

(H) Performed overseas by family members, as defined by § 315.608 of this chapter.

OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

5 CFR Part 870

RIN 3206-AM81

Special Rights for Transferred Employees Under the Dodd-Frank Act Regarding Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance

AGENCY: U.S. Office of Personnel Management.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is issuing a proposed rule to implement provisions of Public Law 111-203, the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. Public Law 111-203 includes authorization for certain transferred employees to have a special enrollment opportunity and special rights regarding Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance (FEGLI) to ensure their continuity of benefits coverage.

DATES: Comments are due on or before March 7, 2014.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments, identified by RIN number "3206-AM81," using any of the following methods:

Federal eRulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the instructions for submitting comments.

Mail: Rachel Royster, Program Analyst, Planning and Policy Analysis, U.S. Office of Personnel Management, 1900 E Street NW., Washington, DC 20415.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Rachel Royster, Program Analyst (202) 606-4181.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is issuing a notice of proposed rulemaking to provide special FEGLI rights to the following employees who were carrying employer sponsored life insurance other than FEGLI: (1) Employees from Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) transferred to Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) and Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC); and (2) employees of the Federal Reserve System, FDIC, National Credit Union Administration Board (NCUA), OCC, OTS, and Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB or the Bureau) under Public Law 111-203. The new regulatory provisions include new subparts in part 870 of title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Authorizing legislation: Section 322 and Section 1064 of Public Law 111-203 discuss the transfer of employees and their special FEGLI rights.

Section 322. Transfer of Employees From OTS to OCC or FDIC

The relevant portions of this section states:

“(B) Dental, Vision, or Life Insurance After the First Year.—If, after the 1-year period beginning on the transfer date, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency or the Corporation determines that the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency or the Corporation, as the case may be, will not continue to participate in any dental, vision or life insurance program of an agency from which an employee was transferred, a transferred employee who is a member of the program may, before the decision takes effect and without regard to any regularly scheduled open season, elect to enroll in—” 322(i)(2)(B).

* * * * *

“(iii) the Federal Employees’ Group Life Insurance Program established under chapter 87 of title 5, United States Code, without regard to any requirement of insurability.” 322(i)(2)(B)(iii).

* * * * *

“(IV) Credit for Time Enrolled in Other Plans—For any transferred employee, enrollment in a life insurance plan administered by the agency from which the employee transferred, immediately before enrollment in a life insurance plan under chapter 87 of title 5, United States Code, shall be considered as enrollment in a life insurance plan under that chapter for the purpose of 8706(b)(1)(A) of title 5, United States Code.” 322(i)(2)(E)(ii)(IV).

These provisions allow a transferring employee that participated in an OTS life insurance program that is no longer available at OCC or FDIC to have a special enrollment period for FEGLI. OTS maintained the Office of Thrift Supervision Group Life Insurance Program in which OCC and FDIC did not continue to participate. Therefore, at approximately one year after the transfer date, July 21, 2011, OPM held a special enrollment period for transferred employees participating in Office of Thrift Supervision Group Life Insurance Program to enroll in FEGLI. The special enrollment period began on June 1, 2012 and ended July 29, 2012.

Any employee who enrolled in FEGLI during this special enrollment period will have their time in a life insurance plan administered by OTS credited towards their 5 years of continuous enrollment to continue FEGLI coverage into retirement.

Section 1064. Transfer of Employees From the Federal Reserve System, FDIC, NCUA, OCC, OTS and HUD to CFPB

The relevant portion of this section states:

“(B) Medical, Dental, Vision, or Life Insurance After the First Year.— If, at the end of the 1-year period beginning on the designated transfer date, the Bureau has not established its own, or arranged for participation in another entity’s, medical, dental, vision, or life insurance program, an employee transferred pursuant to this subtitle who was a member of such a program at the agency or Federal reserve bank from which the employee transferred may, before the coverage of that employee ends under subparagraph (A)(i), elect to enroll, without regard to any regularly scheduled open season, in—” 1064(i)(2)(B).

“(iii) the Federal Employees’ Group Life Insurance Program established under chapter 87 of title 5, United States Code, without regard to any requirement of insurability . . .” 1064(i)(2)(B)(iii).

CFPB established its own life insurance program. Therefore, the referenced employees transferred did not have a special enrollment period to elect FEGLI coverage. These transferred employees can enroll if they experience a qualifying life event or by providing satisfactory medical information.

While there was no special enrollment period for employees transferring to CFPB, if employees that transferred to CFPB were newly eligible for FEGLI (they did not have a prior FEGLI election opportunity at their former employing agency from which they were transferred), an opportunity to enroll was created. Since these employees previously did not have the opportunity to elect FEGLI, they were treated as though they were new employees for FEGLI purposes and could make a first-opportunity election of FEGLI coverage during the same special enrollment period as the Section 322 transferees. These employees who enrolled in FEGLI during this special enrollment period will have their time in a life insurance plan administered by their former agency in which they transferred from credited towards their 5 years of continuous enrollment to continue FEGLI coverage into retirement.

Section 322 and Section 1064. Special Provisions for Annuitants To Ensure Continuation of Life Insurance Benefits

Section 322 and Section 1064 contain the following text:

(E) SPECIAL PROVISIONS TO ENSURE CONTINUATION OF LIFE INSURANCE BENEFITS.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—An annuitant, as defined in section 8901 of title 5, United States Code, who is enrolled in a life insurance plan administered by an agency from which employees are transferred under this title on the day before the transfer date shall be eligible for coverage by a life insurance plan under sections 8706(b), 8714a, 8714b, or 8714c of title 5, United States Code, or by a life insurance plan established by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency or the Corporation, as applicable, without regard to any regularly scheduled open season or any requirement of insurability. 322(i)(2)(E)(i).

And

(G) SPECIAL PROVISIONS TO ENSURE CONTINUATION OF LIFE INSURANCE BENEFITS.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—An annuitant (as defined in section 8901(3) of title 5, United States Code) who is enrolled in a life insurance plan administered by a transferor agency on the day before the designated transfer date shall be eligible for coverage by a life insurance plan under 8706(b), 8714a, 8714b, and 8714c of title 5, United States Code, or in a life insurance plan established by the Bureau, without regard to any regularly scheduled open season and requirement of insurability. 1064(i)(2)(G)(i).

OPM has interpreted these provisions to mean that if a referenced annuitant’s life insurance coverage lapsed because their life insurance program ceased to exist, then they will be eligible to elect FEGLI. There is no one in this category because there are no life insurance programs administered by a transferor agency that ceased to exist. Therefore, there are no annuitants that can elect FEGLI as a result of these provisions.

Regulatory Impact Analysis

OPM has examined the impact of this proposed rule as required by Executive Order 12866 and Executive Order 13563, which directs agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public, health, and safety effects, distributive impacts, and equity). A regulatory impact analysis must be prepared for major rules with economically significant effects of $100 million or more in any one year. This rule is not considered a major rule because OPM expects that this rule will not impose costs of more than $100 million in any one year.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Prior to 2010, section 13(3) of the FRA (12 U.S.C. 343) provided that the Board may authorize any Federal Reserve Bank (“Reserve Bank”) to extend credit to any individual, partnership, or corporation subject to four principal conditions set forth in that section. These conditions required that (1) credit be extended only in unusual and exigent circumstances; (2) the Board act by the affirmative vote of at least five of its members; (3) the lending Reserve Bank obtain evidence before extending the credit that the borrower is unable to secure adequate accommodations from other banking institutions; and (4) the extension of credit be indorsed or otherwise secured to the satisfaction of the Reserve Bank. This statutory authority to extend credit in unusual and exigent circumstances was enacted by Congress in 1932 to
