

553 as a foreign affairs function of the United States because it advances the President's foreign policy goals and directly involves relationships between the United States and its alien visitors. Accordingly, DHS is not required to provide public notice and an opportunity to comment before implementing the requirements under this final rule.

B. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA) (5 U.S.C. 603(b)), as amended by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement and Fairness Act of 1996 (SBREFA), requires an agency to prepare and make available to the public a regulatory flexibility analysis that describes the effect of a proposed rule on small entities (i.e., small businesses, small organizations, and small governmental jurisdictions) when the agency is required "to publish a general notice of proposed rulemaking for any proposed rule." Because this rule is being issued as a final rule, on the grounds set forth above, a regulatory flexibility analysis is not required under the RFA.

DHS has considered the impact of this rule on small entities and has determined that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. The individual aliens to whom this rule applies are not small entities as that term is defined in 5 U.S.C. 601(6). Accordingly, there is no change expected in any process as a result of this rule that would have a direct effect, either positive or negative, on a small entity.

C. Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule will not result in the expenditure by State, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million or more in any one year, and it will not significantly or uniquely affect small governments. Therefore, no actions were deemed necessary under the provisions of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995.

D. Executive Order 12866

This amendment does not meet the criteria for a "significant regulatory action" as specified in Executive Order 12866.

E. Executive Order 13132

The rule will not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the National Government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with section 6 of Executive Order 13132, DHS has determined that this final rule does not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a federalism summary impact statement.

F. Executive Order 12988 Civil Justice Reform

This rule meets the applicable standards set forth in sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of Executive Order 12988.

G. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Department of Homeland Security is modifying OMB Control Number 1651-0111, Arrival and Departure Record, to allow eligible Chilean passport holders to use the Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA) to apply for authorization to travel under the VWP prior to departing for the United States. CBP uses the information to assist in determining if an applicant is eligible for travel under the VWP. The Department is requesting emergency processing of this change to 1651-0111 as the information is essential to the mission of the agency and is needed prior to the expiration of time periods established under the PRA. Because of the designation of Chile for participation in the VWP, the Department is requesting OMB approval of this information collection in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3507).

The addition of Chile to the Visa Waiver Program will result in an estimated annual increase to information collection 1651-0111 of 180,000 responses and 45,000 burden hours. The total burden hours for ESTA, including Chile, is as follows:

Estimated annual reporting burden: 4,830,000 hours.

Estimated number of respondents: 19,320,000 respondents.

Estimated average annual burden per respondent: 15 minutes.

Amendments to the Regulations

For the reasons stated in the preamble, DHS amends part 217 of title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR part 217), as set forth below.

PART 217—VISA WAIVER PROGRAM

■ 1. The authority citation for part 217 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 8 U.S.C. 1103, 1187; 8 CFR part 2.

■ 2. In § 217.2 the definition of the term "Designated country" in paragraph (a) is revised to read as follows:

§ 217.2 Eligibility.

(a) * * *

Designated country refers to Andorra, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brunei, Chile, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, Republic of Korea, San Marino, Singapore, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Taiwan, and the United Kingdom. The United Kingdom refers only to British citizens who have the unrestricted right of permanent abode in the United Kingdom (England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man); it does not refer to British overseas citizens, British dependent territories' citizens, or citizens of British Commonwealth countries. Taiwan refers only to individuals who have unrestricted right of permanent abode on Taiwan and are in possession of an electronic passport bearing a personal identification (household registration) number.

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION

12 CFR Parts 611, 620, and 630

RIN 3052-AD00

Organization; Disclosure to Shareholders; Disclosure to Investors in System-wide and Consolidated Bank Debt Obligations of the Farm Credit System; Advisory Vote

AGENCY: Farm Credit Administration.

ACTION: Interim final rule.

SUMMARY: The Farm Credit Administration (FCA, we, or our) issues this interim final rule amending its regulations to remove all requirements for non-binding, advisory votes at Farm Credit System (System) banks and associations. This rule is in response to recent legislation wherein Congress provided that no funds available to the FCA may be used to "implement or enforce" regulations requiring non-binding, advisory votes on senior officer compensation, and directed the FCA to review its rules to ensure they reflect Congressional intent that a primary responsibility of the boards of directors of System institutions is to oversee compensation practices.

DATES: This interim final rule will become effective 30 days after publication in the Federal Register during which either or both Houses of Congress are in session. We will publish notice of the effective date in the Federal Register. Comments, if any, are due within April 30, 2014.

ADDRESSES: Interested parties may submit written comments by any of the following methods:

- Email: Send an email to reg-comm@fca.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Objective

Our objective in this interim final rule is to ensure the provisions of Title VI of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2014 (Appropriations Act)¹ are fulfilled by ensuring our rules on non-binding, advisory votes on senior officer compensation are neither implemented nor enforced.

¹ 113 Public Law 76, 128 Stat. 5 (H.R. 3547).

II. Background

On October 3, 2012, the FCA² issued a final rule regarding senior officer compensation disclosures and related topics that amended parts 611, 612, 619, 620, and 630.³ Section 611.410 of the rule requires Farm Credit banks and associations to hold non-binding, advisory votes on senior officer compensation in certain circumstances.⁴ On January 17, 2014, the President of the United States signed into law the Appropriations Act. The Appropriations Act is the vehicle for making consolidated appropriations for Federal agencies in the fiscal year ending September 30, 2014, and for other purposes.⁵ A provision in Title VI of the Appropriations Act limits the FCA from using fiscal year 2014 funds to "implement or enforce those portions of the final regulation published in the Federal Register on October 3, 2012 (77 FR 60582), establishing a requirement that Farm Credit System institutions hold an advisory vote on officer compensation."

Also, in February 2014, the Agricultural Act of 2014 (Farm Bill) was signed into law.⁶ Section 5404 of the Farm Bill contained "Findings by Congress" that emphasized the benefit to System stockholders' understanding of the operations of their institution through disclosure of the institution's senior officer compensation, and explained that transparent disclosure regarding compensation practices reinforces the cooperative nature of System institutions.⁷ Also, the findings

² As an independent agency within the Executive branch of the Federal Government, FCA is responsible for the safety, soundness, regulation and supervision of the banks, associations, and related entities in the System, as well as the Federal Agricultural Mortgage Corporation (Farmer Mac). The System and Farmer Mac are Government-sponsored enterprises with public service missions.

³ See 77 FR 60582. The rule was effective December 17, 2012, but non-binding, advisory votes on compensation increases of 15 percent or more are not required until 2015 (77 FR 76215, December 27, 2012).

⁴ On December 4, 2012, the Farm Credit Council, on behalf of the System banks and associations, filed a petition requesting that we repeal those provisions of the final rule that require a non-binding, advisory vote on senior officer compensation. Interested parties have the right to petition a Federal agency to issue, amend, or repeal regulations under 5 U.S.C. 553(e). We published the petition in the Federal Register on February 19, 2013 (78 FR 11551), and invited comments.

⁶ 113 Public Law 79, 128 Stat. 649 (H.R. 2642), signed by the President on February 7, 2014.

⁷ As cooperatives, the System banks and associations are borrower-owned financial in Section 5404 of the Farm Bill placed primary responsibility, and therefore accountability, for the establishment and oversight of System institution compensation practices with each institution's board of directors,⁸ and clearly linked the boards' oversight responsibility for compensation to the overall safe and sound operations of the respective institutions. Congress explained in the Farm Bill that any regulation should strengthen the ability of System institutions' boards of directors to oversee compensation practices. Consistent with the aforementioned Congressional findings, the FCA will continue to emphasize, through its regulatory and supervisory authorities, the importance of providing comprehensive, transparent and beneficial disclosures to stockholders on senior officer compensation. We also intend to reinforce the responsibility and accountability of System institutions' boards of directors in establishing and overseeing compensation practices to ensure the safe and sound operation of the institutions they serve.

III. Interim Final Rulemaking and Non-Binding, Advisory Votes on Compensation

With the promulgation of this rule, the FCA is using the "Interim Final" rule procedure for rulemaking, which permits agencies to adopt certain rules on an expedited basis, without going through the usual proposal and final stages of notice-and-comment rulemaking. The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) generally requires an agency to publish notice of a proposed and final rulemaking in the Federal Register. This requirement does not apply, however, when the agency "for good cause finds . . . that notice and public procedure thereon are impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest."⁹

The FCA believes that the amendments contained in this rulemaking fit the category of rules appropriate for interim final rulemaking. We believe the provision in institutions. Only those borrowers who are farmers, ranchers, or producers or harvesters of aquatic products, and cooperatives eligible to borrow from System institutions under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, as amended, hold voting stock. Also, System associations are voting stockholders of their affiliated Farm Credit bank.

⁸ The voting stockholders of each System bank and association elect a majority of its directors. The stockholder-elected directors must constitute at least 60 percent of the members of each institution's board.

⁹ See 5 U.S.C. 553(b). The APA, 5 U.S.C. 551-59, et seq., supports this streamlined technique of rulemaking.

Title VI of the Appropriations Act supports an interim final rulemaking as the limitation arguably makes formal proposed and final rulemaking procedures “impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest.” Further, we believe amending the rule to remove the requirements for non-binding, advisory votes will ensure compliance with the Appropriations Act. Consistent with the Appropriations Act, as well as the Farm Bill, this interim final rulemaking is limited to the advisory vote provisions of the October 3, 2012, (77 FR 60582) rulemaking.

Specifically, we are removing the following rule provisions:

- § 611.100(a), defining the term “advisory vote”;
- § 611.360, requiring policies and procedures for non-binding, advisory votes on senior officer compensation;
- § 611.410, addressing non-binding, advisory votes on senior officer compensation;
- § 620.5(a)(11), requiring disclosure of any advisory votes held during the reporting year at the institution;
- § 620.6(c)(6), requiring disclosure (adjacent to the compensation table) in the annual report of a stockholder’s right to petition for a non-binding, advisory vote on senior officer compensation; and
- § 630.20(i)(last sentence), requiring disclosure of any advisory votes held during the reporting year within the System.

All other regulatory provisions and changes resulting from the October 3, 2012 (77 FR 60582) rulemaking remain in effect.

IV. Regulatory Flexibility Act

Pursuant to section 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), the FCA hereby certifies that this interim final rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Each of the banks in the System, considered together with its affiliated associations, has assets and annual income in excess of the amounts that would qualify them as small entities. Therefore, System institutions are not “small entities” as defined in the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Airworthiness Directives; Pratt & Whitney Turbofan Engines

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: We are adopting a new airworthiness directive (AD) for all Pratt & Whitney (PW) PW2037, PW2037D, PW2037M, PW2040, PW2040D, PW2043, PW2146, PW2240, PW2337, PW2643, and F117–PW–100 turbofan engines. This AD was prompted by a rupture of the diffuser-to-high-pressure turbine (HPT) case flange. This AD requires a one-time eddy current inspection (ECI) of affected engines with certain diffuser and HPT cases installed. This AD also requires a fluorescent-penetrant inspection (FPI) of the diffuser case rear flange and HPT case front flange. We are issuing this AD to prevent failure of the diffuser-to-HPT case flange, which could lead to uncontained engine failure and damage to the airplane.

DATES: This AD is effective May 5, 2014.

The Director of the Federal Register approved the incorporation by reference of a certain publication listed in this AD as of May 5, 2014.
