Records in this system are retrieved by various fields including the name of correspondent, project number, correspondence identification number or correspondent's identification number.

SAFEGUARDS:

Database tables are kept on separate file servers away from general file storage and other local area network usage. The data itself is stored in a password-protected, client-server database. Electronic transmissions of records are encrypted and password-protected. Security measures establish access levels for different types of users. Personnel authorized to access the system must complete all Security, Privacy, and Records management training and sign the Rules of Behavior.

Records retention and disposition vary dependent on the type of record maintained within the system.

Paper records are disposed of by shredding or pulping, and records contained on electronic media are degaussed or erased in accordance with 384 Departmental Manual 1.
