[Docket No. EL14–80–000]

Calpine Construction Finance Company, L.P. v. Tampa Electric Company; Notice of Complaint

Take notice that on July 1, 2014, pursuant to Rule 206 of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's (Commission) Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.206 and sections 206 and 306 of the Federal Power Act, 16 U.S.C. 824(e) and 825(e), Calpine Construction Finance Company, L.P. (Complainant or CCFC) filed a formal complaint against Tampa Electric Company (Respondent or TECO) requesting that the Commission order TECO to permit CCFC to defer the commencement of service under the transmission service agreement between CCFC and TECO pursuant to section 17.7 of TECO's Open Access Transmission Tariff.

CCFC certifies that copies of the complaint were served on the contacts for the TECO as listed on the Commission's list of Corporate Officials.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. The Respondent's answer and all interventions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. The Respondent's answer, motions to intervene, and protests must be served on the Complainants.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 5 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. New York Independent System Operator, Inc.; Notice of Compliance Filing

Take notice that on July 2, 2014, New York Independent System Operator, Inc. (NYISO) submitted a compliance filing requesting deferral of the effective date of January 1, 2014 for its Open Access Transmission Tariff revisions filed to comply with the requirements of Order Nos. 1000 and 1000–A.¹ NYISO requests that the Commission immediately issue a notice providing for a shortened comment period, so as not to delay Commission action in underlying proceedings.

We grant NYISO's request for shortened comment period, with comments due on July 14, 2014. Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. On or before the comment date, it is not necessary to serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>.
