On July 2, 2014, NTCH, Inc. (Petitioner), filed a petition seeking Commission action to rescind the blanket forbearance of the rate publication requirement (47 U.S.C. 211) for roaming rates offered by CMRS carriers and to amend 47 CFR 20.15(b) by deleting the CMRS exemption from filing roaming rates, whether for data roaming or voice roaming. Petitioner also asks the Commission to adopt a rule requiring CMRS providers and commercial mobile data service providers to make their roaming rates publicly and openly available online and to prohibit CMRS and commercial mobile data service providers from entering into or enforcing agreements that prevent disclosure of roaming rates. By the public notice that was released on July 14, 2014 (DA 14–997), the Bureau seeks comment on the petition.

This proceeding has been designated as a “permit-but-disclose” proceeding in accordance with the Commission’s ex parte rules. Persons making ex parte presentations must file a copy of any written presentation or a memorandum summarizing any oral presentation within two business days after the presentation (unless a different deadline applicable to the Sunshine period applies). Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentation must (1) list all persons attending or otherwise participating in the meeting at which the ex parte presentation was made, and (2) summarize all data presented and arguments made during the presentation. If the presentation consisted in whole or in part of the presentation of data or arguments already reflected in the presenter’s written comments, memoranda or other filings in the proceeding, the presenter may provide citations to such data or arguments in his or her prior comments, memoranda, or other filings (specifying the relevant page and/or paragraph numbers where such data or arguments can be found) in lieu of summarizing them in the memorandum. Documents shown or given to Commission staff during ex parte meetings are deemed to be written ex parte presentations and must be filed consistent with 47 CFR 1.1206(b). In proceedings governed by 47 CFR 1.49(f) or for which the Commission has made available a method of electronic filing, written ex parte presentations and memoranda summarizing oral ex parte presentations, and all attachments thereto, must be filed through the electronic comment filing system available for that proceeding, and must be filed in their native format (e.g., .doc, .xml, .ppt, searchable .pdf). Participants in this proceeding should familiarize themselves with the Commission’s ex parte rules.
