

jointly moved to terminate the investigation based upon a settlement reached by the parties (“the Samsung motion”). The Commission investigative staff filed responses in support of both motions.

On August 4, 2014, the ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 22) granting both motions. No petitions for review were filed.

After considering the subject ID and the relevant portions of the record, the Commission has determined not to review the subject ID. The Commission agrees with the ALJ that both motions comply with the Commission’s rules for termination, and that the settlements do not adversely affect the public health and welfare, competitive conditions in the U.S. economy, the production of like or directly competitive articles in the United States, and U.S. consumers. Accordingly, the investigation is terminated.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in section 210 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR Part 210).

By order of the Commission.
