POLICY JUSTIFICATION

Brazil—S-70B Helicopter Follow-On Support

The Government of Brazil has requested a possible sale for three years of follow-on support for S-70B helicopters, which includes 1 Tactical Operational Flight Trainer, 5 AN/AVS-9 Night Vision Goggles, spare and repair parts, support equipment, tools and test equipment, personnel training and training equipment, publications and technical documentation, U.S. Government and contractor technical, engineering, and logistics support services, and other related elements of logistics and program support. The estimated cost is $150 million.

The proposed sale will contribute to the foreign policy and national security of the United States by helping to improve the security of Brazil, which has been, and continues to be, an important force for regional stability and economic progress in South America.

The Government of Brazil will use the follow-on support to improve the level of training for its pilots and enhance the performance of its S-70 fleet. This support will increase Brazil's operational readiness.

The proposed sale of this equipment and support will not alter the basic military balance in the region.

There are no principal contractors associated with this proposed sale. There are no known offset agreements proposed in connection with this potential sale.

Implementation of this proposed sale will not require any additional U.S. Government or contractor representatives in Brazil. However, travel will be required on a temporary basis for program, technical, and management oversight and support requirements.

There will be no adverse impact on U.S. defense readiness as a result of this proposed sale.

POLICY JUSTIFICATION

Brunei—C-130J Aircraft

The Government of Brunei has requested a sale of 1 C-130J aircraft, 6 AE2100D3 turboprop engines (4 installed and 2 spares), Government Furnished Equipment, communication equipment, spare and repair parts, support and test equipment, publications and technical documentation, personnel training and training equipment, U.S. Government and contractor engineering, technical and logistics support services, and other related elements of logistical and program support. The estimated cost is $343 million.

This proposed sale will contribute to the foreign policy and national security of the United States by helping to strengthen the U.S.-Brunei relationship, which has been a force for regional stability and economic progress in Southeast Asia.

This proposed sale of a C-130J to Brunei will provide a critical capability to assist in Humanitarian Assistance and Disaster Relief missions. The aircraft will enable Brunei to provide aid and assistance in greater capacities to regional allies and partners in need. The aircraft will also provide the ability to execute maritime patrol missions and contribute to search and rescue missions in the region. Brunei should have no difficulty absorbing this aircraft into its inventory.

The proposed sale of this aircraft and support will not alter the basic military balance in the region.

The principal contractor will be Lockheed Martin-Aerospace in Marietta, Georgia. There are no known offset agreements in connection with this potential sale.

Implementation of this proposed sale will not require the assignment of any additional U.S. Government or contractor representatives to Brunei.

There will be no adverse impact on U.S. defense readiness as a result of this proposed sale.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

Office of the Secretary

Threat Reduction Advisory Committee; Notice of Federal Advisory Committee Meeting

AGENCY: Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology and Logistics), Department of Defense (DoD).

ACTION: Federal Advisory Committee meeting notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Defense announces the following Federal advisory committee meeting of the Threat Reduction Advisory Committee (TRAC). This meeting will be closed to the public.

DATES: Tuesday, November 4, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. and Wednesday, November 5, 2014, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

ADDRESSES: CENTRA Technology Inc., Ballston, Virginia on November 4 and CENTRA Technology Inc., Ballston, Virginia and the Pentagon, Arlington, Virginia on November 5.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. William Hostyn, DoD, Defense Threat Reduction Agency J2/5/8R-AC, 8725 John J. Kingman Road, MS 6201, Fort Belvoir, VA 22060-6201. Email: william.hostyn@dtra.mil. Phone: (703) 767-4453. Fax: (703) 767-4206.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Purpose of Meeting: This meeting is being held under the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act of 1972 (FACA) (5 U.S.C., Appendix, as amended), the Government in the Sunshine Act of 1976 (5 U.S.C. 552b, as amended), and 41 CFR 102-3.150. The Committee will obtain, review and evaluate classified information related to the Committee's mission to advise on technology security, Combating Weapons of Mass Destruction (C-WMD), counterterrorism, and counterproliferation.

Agenda: On Tuesday, November 4, the TRAC will receive a CIA/DIA current classified intelligence update. Following the opening remarks and intelligence update, the members will receive two classified reports from the TRAC information gathering groups on the Nuclear Strategic Stability and Cooperative Threat Reduction, taskings received from the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics and the Assistant Secretary of the Army for Nuclear, Chemical and Biological Defense. The TRAC was asked to examine and present recommendations to the sponsor on strategic implications to possible changes to the U.S. Nuclear arsenal on U.S. strategies and allied viewpoints. The TRAC was also tasked by the sponsor to examine the Cooperative Threat Reduction program as it currently operates and the implications to U.S. obligations of possible modifications or direction changes. The TRAC will then deliberate on the information and produce a recommendation. During a working lunch, the TRAC members will continue to discuss the information and develop recommendations for the sponsor. At the afternoon session, the members will receive two classified briefings on the Defense Threat Reduction Agency's Constellation Information Fusion Project and the development of framing questions to be used in the Terms of Reference for an upcoming classified review of North Korean weapons programs. The meeting will wrap up with a final discussion on the briefings of the day.

The TRAC will continue to meet on November 5, 2014. The TRAC will hold classified discussions to receive information gathered for the TRAC's tasking to evaluate and provide program recommendations for DoD's Global Health Security program, followed by an information presentation to the entire TRAC on potential effects of changes being considered to DoD's Chemical and Biological Defense Program.

The TRAC will provide an assessment on the program's ability to meet Congressional intent if the program is restructured. After deliberating and voting on the information provided to the entire committee by the information gathering groups, and approving the recommendations to be provided to the TRAC sponsor, the TRAC will then move to the Pentagon to continue the meeting and provide an executive outbrief to senior DoD leaders. The TRAC will then provide recommendations to DoD senior leaders on the Nuclear Strategic Stability and Chemical Biological Defense Program taskings, and an interim report of findings for the Global Health Security information gathering group. The session will conclude with a classified discussion on the way ahead and provide a classified senior leader briefing.

Meeting Accessibility: Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552b and 41 CFR 102-3.155, the Department of Defense has determined that the meeting of the TRAC on November 4-5, 2014, shall be closed to the public. The Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics, in consultation with the DoD FACA Attorney, has determined in writing that the public interest requires all sessions of this meeting be closed to
