Once the Criteria for Criteria for CCBHCs are established, the planning grants will be awarded to states by January 1, 2016. By September 1, 2017 up to eight states will be selected from those states awarded planning grants to participate in a two year demonstration program to implement proposed approaches and assess their success. Finally, one year after the first state is selected and annually thereafter—reports will be submitted to Congress on the accessibility, quality, scope, and cost of services. A final report to Congress will be submitted by December 31, 2021, and will include recommendations to continue, expand, modify, or terminate the demonstration program.
