

Personnel in American Indian Vocational Rehabilitation Services Projects is to improve the knowledge and skills of such personnel so that they can provide appropriate, effective, and culturally relevant VR services to assist American Indians with disabilities prepare for, and engage in, gainful employment consistent with their informed choice.

The cooperative agreement will specify the measures that will be used to assess the grantee's performance against the goals and objectives of the project, including outcome measures and measures that reflect the quality, relevance, and usefulness of the training and TA products developed by the Institute.

In its annual and final performance report to the Department, the grant recipient will be expected to report the data outlined in the cooperative agreement that is needed to assess its performance, including, at a minimum, the following information related to the performance measures for this project:

- The number of participants enrolled in the Institute;
- The number of participants who successfully completed the series of trainings provided by the Institute; and
- The number of participants who obtained a VR certificate.

The cooperative agreement and annual report will be reviewed by RSA and the grant recipient between the third and fourth quarter of each project period. Adjustments will be made to the project accordingly in order to ensure demonstrated progress towards meeting the goal and outcomes of the project.

5. Continuation Awards: In making a continuation award under 34 CFR 75.253, the Secretary considers, among other things: whether a grantee has made substantial progress in achieving the goals and objectives of the project; whether the grantee has expended funds in a manner that is consistent with its approved application and budget; and, if the Secretary has established performance measurement requirements, the performance targets in the grantee's approved application. In making a continuation grant, the Secretary also considers whether the grantee is operating in compliance with the assurances in its approved application, including those applicable to Federal civil rights laws that prohibit discrimination in programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance from the Department (34 CFR 100.4, 104.5, 106.4, 108.8, and 110.23).
