

traveler program to citizens of the Republic of Panama.

The Republic of Panama

On February 29, 2012, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, CBP and the Ministry of Public Security of the Republic of Panama signed a Joint Statement regarding the development of an international trusted traveler initiative. As CBP and the Republic of Panama have negotiated the operational details and completed the necessary infrastructure updates, CBP is now ready to announce that, based on the Joint Statement, citizens of the Republic of Panama are eligible to apply for participation in Global Entry.

In order to participate, citizens of the Republic of Panama who apply for Global Entry will be required to complete the on-line application located on the GOES Web site, pay the non-refundable Global Entry fee, and satisfy all the requirements of Global Entry. These applicants will be permitted to participate in Global Entry only upon successful completion of a thorough risk assessment by both CBP and the Republic of Panama's Ministry of Public Security and completion of an interview with CBP. The vetting criteria were mutually developed and are consistent with each agency's applicable domestic laws and policies. Once the risk assessment has been completed, CBP will notify the applicants regarding whether or not they have been accepted into Global Entry.

Applicants may be denied enrollment in the Global Entry program for various reasons. An individual who is inadmissible to the United States under U.S. immigration law or has, at any time, been granted a waiver of inadmissibility or parole is ineligible to participate in Global Entry. Applications from such individuals will automatically be rejected. Applications for Global Entry may also be rejected if the applicant has ever been arrested for, or convicted of, a criminal offense, or if the individual has ever been found in violation of customs or immigration laws, or of any criminal law. Additionally, an applicant will not be accepted for participation in Global Entry if CBP determines that the applicant presents a potential risk of terrorism, or criminality (including smuggling), or if CBP cannot sufficiently determine that the applicant meets all the program eligibility criteria. The eligibility criteria are set forth in more detail in the Global Entry final rule and 8 CFR 235.12. See also <http://www.globalentry.gov>.

U.S. Citizens' Participation in Panama Global Pass

Pursuant to the Joint Statement, U.S. citizens who are Global Entry participants or U.S. citizens who can utilize Global Entry kiosks as NEXUS or SENTRI participants have the option to apply for Panama Global Pass membership. Panama Global Pass is a trusted traveler program in the Republic of Panama that uses self-service kiosks to offer expedited processing for air travelers through clearance formalities when entering the Republic of Panama. All U.S. applicants must apply for Panama Global Pass directly with the Government of Panama, be thoroughly vetted by both CBP and the Republic of Panama and be interviewed by the National Immigration Service of Panama in the Republic of Panama to complete the enrollment process. U.S. applicants are required to pay the Panama Global Pass non-refundable $100 fee for a five-year membership. The Republic of Panama will notify the U.S. applicant directly about whether he or she was approved for Panama Global Pass. More information about how to apply for Panama Global Pass membership is available at <http://www.globalentry.gov>.
