SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background: CECANF was established to develop a national strategy and recommendations for reducing fatalities resulting from child abuse and neglect.

Agenda: On February 26, 2015, Commission members will meet to hear testimony from four panels of presenters. The first panel will focus on service delivery models under way in the Pacific Northwest region that are promising in the prevention of fatalities to children not known to the child welfare system. During the second panel, Commission members will hear testimony on workforce issues that influence performance and successful strategies for addressing these issues. JooYeun Chang, Associate Commissioner of the Children's Bureau, will talk with Commissioners about the status and effectiveness of key federal policies aimed at protecting children at risk of harm. She will provide critical information regarding successful strategies that are being used by states, tribes, and localities that demonstrate reduced child abuse and neglect fatalities to children known to child welfare. In the fourth panel, Commissioners will learn about the legal framework that supports or limits government's ability to intervene on behalf of children in the family context. Commission members will then continue discussing the work plans of the six Commission subcommittees, the information that they have obtained to date, and emerging high-level recommendations.

Attendance at the Meeting: Individuals interested in attending the meeting in person or participating by webinar and teleconference must register in advance.
